

SPANISH 109
BEGINNING SPANISH I

BULLETIN INFORMATION

SPAN 109 – Beginning Spanish I (3 credit hours)

Course Description:

Introduction to grammar and practical vocabulary necessary for fundamental communication skills. Admission to SPAN 109 is reserved exclusively for those who have never studied Spanish or have not studied Spanish within the past five (5) years, or have placed into this class according to the results of the Phase I placement exam. Please note the following: 1) admission to SPAN 110 is reserved exclusively for those who have successfully completed SPAN 109; 2) SPAN 109 is offered only during the fall and summer I sessions; 3) SPAN 110 is offered only during the spring and summer II sessions; 4) credit may be earned only for SPAN 109 and SPAN 110, or SPAN 111, or SPAN 121.

SAMPLE COURSE OVERVIEW

This course has a two-fold goal: to prepare you to use Spanish to communicate with others in a basic way and to explore various aspects of the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world through readings and videos.

ITEMIZED LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of Spanish 109 students will be able to:

1. Understand and respond appropriately to some simple questions in the present time frame about everyday topics: one's name and similar biographical information, pastimes, family, classes, campus life, furniture and accommodations, and household chores and activities;
2. Demonstrate understanding of the main idea and many details of short written and audio texts specially prepared for learners on common topics: greetings, language, stereotypes, sports, and the Hispanic community;
3. Demonstrate recognition and understanding of basic vocabulary, such as numbers, days of the week, family members, classroom objects, classes, conditions/emotions, pastimes, household items/furniture/activities, and colors;
4. Demonstrate understanding of and begin to apply in communicative contexts the basic grammatical structures of Spanish, such as adjective-noun agreement, possessive and descriptive adjectives, present indicative tense, and formation of questions/use of interrogative words; and

5. Demonstrate familiarity with cultural information related to Hispanic communities in the United States, Mexico, and Spain.

SAMPLE REQUIRED TEXTS/SUGGESTED READINGS/MATERIALS:

1. Anda. Audrey L. Heining-Boynton and Glynis S. Cowell, Pearson, 2009.
2. MySpanishLab for Anda online component to accompany the Anda textbook.

SAMPLE ASSIGNMENTS AND/OR EXAMS

1. EXAMS AND QUIZZES: If you miss one exam due to a documented, excused absence, the grade for that exam will be replaced by the average of the other two chapter exam grades.

- a. If one quiz is missed due to a documented, excused absence, its grade will be replaced by the average of the highest and lowest of the other quiz scores.
- b. If you miss a quiz or an exam due to an unexcused (and/or undocumented) absence, you will receive a score of zero (0) for the missing evaluation.
- c. If you miss more than one quiz or exam due to documented excused absence, please speak with your professor at once.
- d. The use of any electronic device during an exam or quiz will result in a zero (0) on that exam/quiz.

2. HOMEWORK AND WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS: All assignments must be completed by the designated due date. Those missed due to a documented, excused absence may be submitted for full credit within two (2) class days after returning to class. All other assignments not completed in time will be assigned a zero (0). All textbook and workbook exercises must be fully completed if you wish to receive credit.
