Recommendations

B.S. Hospitality Management

To learn more about how you can make the most of your educational experiences within and beyond the classroom contact:
Glenna Gillentine, Internship Director, ggillentine@hrsm.sc.edu
PARTICIPATE

Community Service

Related courses
HRTM 290, HRTM 495; HRSM 301; HRTM 364; HRTM 481; HRTM 591; HRTM 386; HRTM 475; HRTM 575; HRTM 564

Sites/Experiences
HRTM/HRSM Facebook page, VCC and CVC Sites for Local and State festivals, Blackboard under HRSM community tab

Why this is important
Immediate access to opportunities

Global Learning

Related courses
HRSM 797; HRTM 590M.

Recommended timing
Maymester

Campus or Local Opportunities
Festivals, golf tournament, McCutchens House

Why this is important
Study Abroad Opportunities help students remain cognizant of the global nature and culture

Peer Leadership

Student Organization(s)
NSMH; CMAA; Association for Wedding Professionals; DECA; Eta Sigma Delta; Hospitality Financial and Technology Professionals; HRSM Ambassadors; Professional Convention Managers Association

Opportunities
HRTM Career Fair and Internship Fair

Why this is important
Interact with industry professionals; Refine skills

Internships

Related courses
HRTM 290; HRTM 495

Program internship requirements
Formal internship information session is mandatory

Recommended work experiences worldwide, must have access to internet

Why this is important
hands on learning; know industry professionals

Research

Related courses
HRTM 584; HRTM 590

INTEGRATE

How to integrate
Online course assignments while enrolled in 290 and 495; guest speakers; attend regional and national conferences; clubs and organizations
LEAD

Initial career opportunities  Hotels, restaurants, clubs-private and public, time shares, event management, theme parks, resorts, ecotourism

Related graduate programs  MS; PhD

Future career opportunities  Manager, work in largest industry in SC