The Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research

ICPSR is an international consortium of more than 700 academic institutions and research organizations. It maintains an online data archive of more than 500,000 files of research in the social sciences.

Through ICPSR you have access to specialized collections and research archives. The organization also provides leadership and training in data access, curation, and methods of analysis for the social science research community.

ICPSR @ University of South Carolina

University of South Carolina maintains an active membership with ICPSR. Faculty, researchers and students at the university can open an individual account to gain access to:

- ICPSR data and article searches
- Publication partner archive databases
- Online data compare and analysis
- Citation guides and data management plans
- Quantitative research training and support

Get an ICPSR/University Research Account

Faculty, researchers and students at USC can create an ICPSR account. To set up your account, you must be logged into the university network using your Network Username and password. ICPSR identifies you as a member of the USC community through the university network.

1. While connected to the university network with your Network Username and password, go to the ICPSR website at http://www.icpsr.umich.edu.
2. Click on Membership in ICPSR.
3. In the top left corner of the page, click on Log In/Create Account
   - Scroll down to New User and click on Create Account.
   - Fill out the information on the Create a New Account page.
   - Click Submit. You will see a verification page with your account information.
   - Click on Proceed to Your Original Destination.
4. In the top left of the ICPSR page, click on Log In/Create Account.
5. Enter your email address and password into the Returning User section. You will now be logged in to ICPSR and can begin your research!

Once you create an account, you can log into ICPSR from anywhere in the world! You will need to log in to ICPSR while on the university network every six months to reauthenticate your account.
