

Dan Catoe, LMSW

Education

Master's Degree in Social Work- University of South Carolina, College of Social Work, 1975

Bachelor's Degree in Psychology, 1973

Professional experience

2002- Currently--Training Development Director with The Center for Child and Family Studies, College of Social Work, USC, Columbia, S.C.

2003 Part-time Instructor York Technical College

1998-2001 Instructor With the Center for Child And Family Studies, College of Social Work, USC, Columbia, S.C.

1995-1998 – Private practice as a psychotherapist (Medicare and Medicaid certified); Trainer and Consultant; Director of Cognitive Therapy Institute, Inc.; contract trainer with The Center for Child and Family Studies.

1992-1995 Assistant Director of Lancaster Recovery Center (Springs Memorial Hospital Chemical Dependency Unit), a 45-bed inpatient treatment center. Responsible for inpatient treatment with staff of forty-six FTEs.

1989-1990 Program Director with Springs Hospital for a fasting weight loss program. Developed the program including marketing, recruiting staff and meeting income goals.

1991-1992 Director of Social Work for Hospice program at Springs Hospital. Supervised volunteer and bereavement services. Provided EAP services to Hospital Staff.

1984-1989-Treatment Director for Counseling Services of Lancaster. Provided consultation to intervention staff for development of treatment plans involving adolescents. Coordinated all treatment services by clinical staff. Provided clinical supervision.

1981-1984 District Social Worker for Catawba Public Health District. Provided supervision to social work staff and direct services in child health and home health programs.

1979-1981 Chief of Consultation and Education for a comprehensive mental health center. Responsible for primary prevention services, public relations and publicity, consultation and education contracts with community agencies and mental health education at the center. Supervised all C & E activities for a staff of forty.

1977-1979 Social Work Consultant to the Department of Health and Environmental Control State office for adult health. Responsible for state- wide efforts in High Blood Pressure and Diabetes Control Project. Provided staff training, consultation, and community education.

1976-1977 Acting Coordinator of Special Services for Columbia Area Mental Health Center. Supervised Transitional, Aftercare and Elderly services implementing federal regulations in PL 9463. Provided direct clinical services mentally ill adults.

1975-1976 Vocational Rehabilitation Counselors. Responsibilities included vocational adjustment, pre-employment counseling, job-seeking skills, and rehabilitation counseling for the Department of Mental Health Geriatric Hospital.

Additional professional activities

Completed 142 hours training toward A.A. M.F.T. Extensive training in Rational Emotive Therapy under Albert Ellis and certified member of the Institute for Advanced Study of Rational Psychotherapy.

Strategic Family Therapy Training, Family Therapy Institute in Washington, D. C. with Jay Haley.

National Institute of Mental Health Staff College graduate in Management and Development.

Certified Structured Group leader for Alcohol and Drug Abuse

Certified Master Counselor for Addictions

Certified Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Counselor

Completed Management Training Program sponsored by SCCADA

Certified Myers-Briggs Practitioner

Community activities

Lions Club Past President, Kershaw, S.C.

activities

S.C. Mental health Association past board member

S.C. Health Education – Committee on Aging Chairperson

Toastmaster International Past President, Lancaster, S.C.

High School Soccer Official

Kershaw Baptist Church Deacon

Appointed to the Lancaster County Recreation Commission

Appointed to the Lancaster County Planning Commission

Awards and Achievements

Listed in “Outstanding Young Men of America “ 1980

White House Conference on Families, Lancaster County delegate

Member of State Committee for Personnel, SCDMH

Governor’s Committee on Health Promotion at the Work Site

Grants Committee Marion Sims Foundations