The Mould/Sederberg Scholarship is given to rising juniors or seniors in the Honors College. It requires a minimum 3.5 GPA, and it requires a demonstration of financial need. The Scholarship is renewable for a second year contingent on the availability of funds and satisfactory academic performance. To apply a student must write a letter to the Dean of the Honors College requesting consideration for the Mould/Sederberg Scholarship. The letter should detail the academic work that the student has been pursuing and hops to continue to pursue. It should also discuss the student's financial situation and how this Scholarship will help. Applications for the next academic year are due by April 1.
