Subj: GOALS AND OBJECTIVES FOR 2013

Ref:  (a) U.S. Navy Regulations, Chapter 7
     (b) CNSTCINST 1533.2 (ROD) (Section 103)

Encl: (1) Listing of Goals and Objectives for 2013

1. Discussion. Reference (a) requires that the Commanding Officer prepare and disseminate policies and directives. Reference (b) outlines the basic criteria of our program, which is augmented by enclosure (1) to this notice.

2. Action. The Unit staff and the Battalion leadership are assigned positions of trust and responsibility. Our mission is screen, train and evaluate to provide top quality Navy and Marine Corps officers. The goals outlined in enclosure (1) will assist us.

3. Cancellation Contingency. This notice is cancelled for record purposes on 15 January 2014.

S. P. COOLEGE

Distribution:
Unit Staff
Battalion Staff
COMMAND GOALS AND OBJECTIVES 2013

1. General. The NROTC Unit has a long tradition of excellence in meeting the needs of the Navy and Marine Corps, while representing the University of South Carolina with character and integrity. Our mission remains to develop future officers mentally, morally, and physically and to imbue them with the highest ideals of duty and loyalty, and with the core values of Honor, Courage, and Commitment in order to commission college graduates as Naval and Marine Corps Officers. As members of the NROTC unit, they conduct themselves professionally, are motivated toward careers in the naval service, meet or exceed the physical readiness standards, and have a potential for future development in mind and character so as to assume the highest responsibilities of command, citizenship and government. Our challenges will vary but the goal of excellence will continue. Our sole purpose is to support the 2013 NROTC Gamecock Battalion.

2. Goals.

a. Maintain positive morale and peak academic excellence.

b. Instill the highest standards of character and citizenship among staff and students.

c. Recruit high quality candidates to fill the Battalion ranks as both full scholarship and college program members.

d. Financial management of austere funds in the process of providing ultimate support to all members of the battalion.

e. Instill and promote a thorough understanding of the concepts and principles of Naval Science.

f. Maintain a high state of physical readiness at all times.

3. Objectives.

a. Strong support for technical degree programs required for the Naval Nuclear Propulsion Program.

b. Achieve and maintain a 3.2 unit GPA.

c. Provide quality instruction and counseling which focuses on the pillars of honor, courage and commitment.
d. Recognize stellar performers with a responsive awards program.

e. Ensure sustained communications with each other to ensure the success of each student.

f. Provide timely and meaningful counseling to all members of the Battalion twice per semester.

g. Provide tutors and an effective study environment to assist students to achieve the highest possible grades.

h. Maintain active two way communication with students and review all recommendations to improve the unit quality of life while pursuing excellence.

i. Maintain timely adherence to all administrative requirements.

j. Promote physical fitness and maintain a unit PFT score of 275 for Marine Option/Marine Enlisted Commissioning Program candidates, and an Excellent in all categories or better for Navy Option Midshipman, and STA-21 Officer Candidates.

k. Support all actions that promote the Battalion in a positive light to the local community while serving as a credit to the University of South Carolina.