

APPLICATION FOR UPPER DIVISION

The University of South Carolina
College of Nursing

Due: 5:00 pm, November 15, 2007 for Fall 2008 Progression

APPLICANT INFORMATION

Selection to the Upper Division for Fall 2008 is limited to the most qualified candidates based on Progression GPA, which includes grades in all courses completed that are required in the nursing major. Students must apply to be considered for progression to the Upper Division. Progression is competitive and not guaranteed to any student. Students selected for admission to the College of Nursing upper division are admitted pending a clear background check and negative drug screen.

CHECKLIST FOR UPPER DIVISION APPLICANTS

Stop! Please read before completing this application!

1. Do you have a minimum Cumulative U.S.C., Collegiate Summary, and Progression GPA of 2.75?
2. Will you have completed 45 progression hours by the end of the current semester?
3. Do these 45 hours include 8 (eight) successful hours of required sciences and 9 (nine) successful hours of required lower division nursing courses?
4. Did you receive a "C" or better in all science and nursing courses?

If you answered YES to all four questions, please continue.
If not, please see your advisor as soon as possible.**

NOTE: If you have ever repeated or will repeat a science or nursing course more than once, you will NOT be eligible to apply for admission to the Upper Division.

Calculation of Progression GPA's includes the current semester's final grades
