INVESTIGATE THE GOLDWATER SCHOLARSHIP

Sophomores and juniors pursuing a bachelor’s degree in these fields with the goal of earning a graduate degree and pursuing a career in research and/or college level teaching are eligible to apply. This fellowship allows students to continue existing research and move to more independent projects. Students must be nominated by the University’s Goldwater Committee and then work closely with individual committee members to refine their application. In the past 5 years, USC has had 10 Goldwater Fellows. For profiles of previous winners consult http://www.act.org/goldwater/.

RISING JUNIORS: IS PUBLIC SERVICE YOUR PASSION? LEARN ABOUT THE TRUMAN SCHOLARSHIP

Successful applicants will possess superior academic ability and a strong record of service and leadership (especially campus, community volunteer work) and be planning a career in public service. Students must be nominated by the University’s Truman Committee and then work closely with individual committee members to refine their application. USC has had 7 Truman Scholars. For profiles of previous winners and more information about this very competitive scholarship consult http://truman.gov/ and attend the Mar 31 workshop!
