McNair Scholar alumni finds success as composer
. . . . Fueled by the momentum of several premieres and accolades during his Masters at Eastman School of Music, David “Clay” Mettens has been full speed ahead since graduating in May. His music, both newly commissioned works and pieces composed over the last two and a half years, is being performed across the country and even around the world. http://www.lynxproject.org/#!Mettens-music-heard-around-the-world/qqhfe/5673d7450cf24ae5e00d7d4f
