If necessary for the timely consideration of a contract or agreement, a special meeting of the Governance Committee and/or the Board of Trustees may be call in accordance with Article VIII, Section 5.H or Article IX, Section 3 of the Bylaws of the Board of Trustees, at which members may participate by conference call or other means in accordance with Article X, Section 12 of the Bylaws of the Board of Trustees. All requirements of the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act shall be adhered to. The President and the Chairman of the Board shall have the sole authority to direct the implementation and consummation of matters approved by the Governance Committee and/or the Board of Trustees.

4. In advance of each regular meeting of the Governance Committee, the General Counsel and Secretary of the Board of Trustees shall supply to the Governance Committee and the Chief Audit Executive a comprehensive record of all contracts and agreements executed by the University, regardless of the total value of said contracts and agreements, to permit inspection and assessment of approvals versus this policy and versus Board Bylaws; and said comprehensive record shall be an item for discussion on the Governance Committee’s agenda.
for each regular meeting. The record of all contracts and agreements supplied to the Governance Committee and the Chief Audit Executive by the General Counsel and the Secretary of the Board of Trustees shall be in a sortable form that permits analysis by total value, by date of university execution, by initiating University division or unit, and by vendor.

E. Academic Agreements

Special ventures, exchanges and agreements to provide academic services must be viewed as contracts and any such agreement must be submitted to the Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost for review prior to execution as provided for herein.

F. Electronic Signatures

The signature of university officials delegated authority herein to sign contracts and agreements that are binding upon the university may be affixed via electronic signature, and such electronic signature shall be binding on the university to the same extent as that of an original signature.

PROCEDURES

The University of South Carolina intends to create and maintain an environment that ensures mission statements for the System and all System campuses are accurate, up-to-date, and reflect teaching, learning, research (where applicable), and community engagement/service. The University’s Board of Trustees may initiate or request review of any mission statement at any time. OIRAA will monitor the review schedule and notify the Board of Trustees and the respective institutional chief academic officer if the mission statement needs review within the next 12 months, based on the most recent approval or if requirements from either SACSCOC or CHE have changed. If the Board of Trustees requests, OIRAA will coordinate review and revision of mission statements for the System, Columbia campus, and regional Palmetto College campuses.

When a System institution submits proposed revisions to a mission statement for review and potential approval to the Board of Trustees, the institution must submit documentation that evidences constituent engagement in the institution’s process for review and revision.

A. Publication of Mission Statements

The current mission statements for the University System and all component campus units published on the OIRAA website:
