

Endowed Chairs and Named Professorships

Criteria for Appointment and Reappointment

- Quality and number of scholarly and/or creative works;
- Enhancement of the University's reputation through regional, national and international recognition of the professional work;
- Quality of University teaching;
- Service to the University and to the profession which distinguishes the individual and University. Appropriate professional and personal conduct.
- Normally, recipients must be full professors at the University of South Carolina or eligible for initial appointment at that rank. In the former case, it is particularly important that the same high standards be adhered to for selection as in the latter. Appointment or reappointment to an endowed chair or named professorship not be made merely as a reward for long service, however devoted.
