

Bachelor of Arts with Distinction

Student Contract

The Bachelor of Arts with Distinction for History majors requires a rigorous course of study above and beyond that required of a traditional History student. By signing below, you indicate that you understand and agree to comply with the demands of the program as listed. You must

- ❖ Declare your intention to pursue a degree with distinction before the beginning of your senior year, that is, before you have begun your last 30 undergraduate hours
- ❖ Have and maintain a minimum 3.6 GPA in the major and 3.5 cumulative GPA
- ❖ Complete an additional 9 hours of History courses at the 200-level or higher (maximum of two 200-level courses may count toward the History major)
- ❖ Notify the professor of your senior seminar or thesis in writing of your intention to pursue a degree “with distinction” and complete to the professor’s satisfaction the additional research necessary for work “with distinction”
- ❖ Publicly present your research project at Discovery Day

I, _____, am aware of the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts with Distinction degree in History. I agree to meet all requirements as listed above.
