Welcome to Soda City!

The SIPA Convention takes place at the Columbia Marriott on the corner of Main and Hampton streets in the City Center of Columbia, South Carolina. Columbia – AKA Soda City – has a vibrant Main Street that keeps growing. Everything you need during the weekend can be found within a few blocks of the hotel. All convention sessions are housed in the hotel, and pre-convention workshops and onsite competitions are less than one mile away at the University of South Carolina’s School of Journalism and Mass Communications.

Looking for a place to eat near the convention hotel? You don’t have to walk far from the hotel to find what you want. Main Street restaurants offer diverse fare for breakfast and lunch. Find what you are craving by using this map.

On Saturday, Main Street Market is open outside the hotel from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and offers you the opportunity to choose from multiple local food vendors. It’s a great place to find quick, good food for a great price. Find out more at http://sodacitysc.com/.

Connect Online

Pinterest
We’re on Pinterest! Collaborate with us at SIPA @ USC to get ideas, inspiration and tips. Plus, SIPA is always #TeamFollowBack. Our Pinterest boards are curated to help your staff find the journalism tips they’re looking for.

Also, we have boards that will help you prepare for Quiz Bowl, the Grammar Challenge and on-site competitions.

Send us links and photos of your publication’s amazing work, and we’ll showcase it on our #Squadgoals board! This is a great way to share your hard work throughout the year and be recognized by all of SIPA’s member publications beyond just the SIPA convention weekend.

Snapchat takeover
Stay up-to-date on all deadlines, information and behind-the-scenes action by following us on Snapchat. We show you where to eat, how to get around Columbia and what you should take advantage of while you’re in town.

Want to show off what your students have been working on? Curious to see other schools’ work space or process? We’re looking for some enthusiastic members to take over the SIPA Snapchat. Interested members will gain access to the SIPA account for 24-48 hours to show a day (or two) in the life of their classes and publications (or broadcasts). Afterward, we’ll save the Snapchat story as a video on our website and share it via social media for all to see. You can fill out the form online (bit.ly/SIPAsnap) or contact me for more details.

And...
Make sure to follow us on Twitter, Instagram and Facebook and use the #SIPA18 hashtag to show us how you are preparing for this year’s convention!

Q: Where are the sessions in relation to the hotel?
A: One of the best things about SIPA is that most sessions are held in the convention hotel. The only sessions outside the hotel are the pre-convention workshops and the on-site competitions. For those, there is a shuttle from the hotel to the J-School, where those are held, or students can choose to walk the scenic 15 minutes to the building.

Q: What should I pack?
A: We are very laid back and encourage everyone to be the same. While school dress codes should still be adhered to, casual dress is appropriate for most of the convention. If it is banned at your school or by your district, then students can’t wear it at SIPA. We do have a Saturday night banquet in which students, advisers and special guests are encouraged to wear nicer outfits – think Sunday best. It gives the students time to dress up and look nice. Ball gowns and tuxedos are too extreme. Keep it dressy but not formal.

Q: What kind of sessions are offered?
A: We have sessions that cover all types of media – broadcast, literary magazine, newsprint, online, photography and yearbook. Also, we have sessions geared for seniors and advisers.

Q: If I get in early, is there anything to do with my students?
A: Columbia is expanding and has so many things to offer visitors. You can sign up for one of SIPA’s pre-convention workshops, which will be announced in December, or visit one of Columbia’s many attractions. Email Leslie for suggestions within walking distance of the hotel or places you can Uber to.

Q: What meals are provided?
A: All students, except for day students, attend the Saturday night banquet. Students are responsible for Friday night dinner, Saturday lunch and Saturday and Sunday breakfast. We encourage students to bring breakfast foods with them so they do not have to pay for breakfast. There is a local market outside the hotel on Saturday where students can get lunch fairly inexpensively ($5-$10).

Advisers, except for day advisers, may attend Saturday breakfast, lunch and banquet. Advisers are only responsible for Friday night dinner and Sunday breakfast.

Q: How do I handle the hotel reservations?
A: Hotel reservations and payments are taken care of through the Marriott. You can find the reservation form in this booklet on page 16. Make sure you fax or email that form to Tiffany Adams. All payments for rooms must be made to the Marriott as well. SIPA takes payment for the convention fees only.

Q: What if I have an odd number of students or need to find a room for a student?
A: Contact Leslie and she will send a message to others attending the convention!
SIPA's Best Visual Contest instructions

Email entries to hsjourno@gmail.com by 10 p.m. Feb. 23. Fee: $5 per entry

Read the submission guidelines carefully. If you have any questions or problems with the process, please contact Leslie Dennis prior to the deadline – 5 p.m. Feb. 23.

Publications are limited to THREE entries per category. This is a visual competition, which means spreads/pages and online elements are judged on design, not written content. See category descriptions for more information (page 6).

Eligibility requirements:
- You must be a SIPA member.
- Adviser and one paying student must be attend the convention.
- Entries must be published during the 2017-2018 school year. (Exception: Portfolio categories.)
  Literary magazines – If your magazine is published once a year and students have not created new designs for this year's publication, you may submit designs from the 2016-2017 edition, if those designs were not entered in the previous convention's competition.

Entries will be disqualified if they do not meet the established criteria.

Deadline:
Entries must be submitted one week before the convention, Feb. 23, by 10 p.m.

How to prepare and submit...

broadcast and online entries –
broadcast entries should be uploaded to an online hosting site (YouTube, Vimeo, etc.)

1. Make a list
   - You can use the form provided on pages 10-14 or create your own list as long as you include all the relevant information. Save this list as a Word Doc or a PDF.
   - If you create your own composite list, include the category name and a link and the name(s) of student(s) responsible for each entry.

2. Double check and save
   - Test the URL so that the judges will not have any trouble when they click on it.
   - Save this list as a Word Document or PDF

3. Submit!
   - Email the list of entries with the subject line “2018 SIPA's Best entries” to HSjourno@gmail.com.
   - Please bring a copy of your composite list to the convention as a record of submissions.

Bring a copy of your composite lists to the convention as a record of your submission.

Email entries to hsjourno@gmail.com by 10 p.m. Feb. 23. Fee: $5 per entry

How to prepare and submit...

All OTHER Entries –
Save all your entries in one folder named SIPABest_SchoolName. Ex: SIPABest_UnivSC
Photos should be saved as JPEGs. All other entries should be saved as PDFs.

Naming your entries:
Name all files
Category Initials_School_Adviser’s Initials.
Ex: if you enter the Newspaper Front Page and you are with Carolina Forest HS, the file should be saved as NF_CFHS_MA.pdf.
If you enter more than once in a category, the files should be named NF1_CFHS_MA.pdf and NF2_CFHS_MA.pdf.

Always include a list
Include a composite list of all entries (saved as Composite List). You can use the form provided on pages 9-12 or create your own list as long as you include all the relevant information. Save this list as a Word Doc or a PDF.

If you do not save photos with a caption or as the proper size, they will not be considered.

Now, just submit!

Upload your folder to either Google Drive or Dropbox and share it with HSjourno@gmail.com.

You will receive an email once we receive your entries. If you do not receive an email notification within 24 hours of submission, email Leslie at dennislc@mailbox.sc.edu. No submissions will be accepted after 10 p.m. Feb. 23.

If you have ANY questions about the procedures, contact Leslie Dennis at 803-777-6146 or dennislc@mailbox.sc.edu ahead of time, and she will walk you through this. Plan ahead!

You will receive materials list and instructions for contests after you register for the convention. Schools/publications can register as many teams per competition as they like.
If students want to participate in multiple competitions (TOP and Quiz Bowl), check the convention overview for times prior to register students for competitions to make sure they do not overlap.

On-site critiques – FEE: $25 per critique new this year
Staffs sign up for a slot time for two students and adviser to meet with a judge to go over your publication.
- Bring your a copy of your publication, any questions you may have and a positive disposition and open mind!
- Our judges will offer praise, encouragement and advice on how to expand your program for your audience!

Broadcast individual anchor contest – FEE: $10 per person
Students write a script from copy on current news events we provide then read it on camera.
- Scripts should be 90-seconds long and written for a high school audience.
- Make sure to pack camera-ready clothing and dress appropriately Saturday afternoon.

Broadcast TOP – FEE: $20 per team (teams: 2 students)
Students interview students, write a script and capture and edit footage on a specific topic to create a video package.

Friday night at registration:
- Receive topic – All teams receive the same story topic but decide on their own angle for packages. Students conduct interviews and shoot footage from the opening ceremony until the timed portion of the contest begins Saturday afternoon. Read all instructions carefully.

Saturday at 1:30 – 4:30:
- Finalize scripts, edit footage and complete feature package in a computer lab at the School of Journalism and Mass Communications.
- Upload entries to VIMEO or YouTube for judging submission.

Magazine TOP – FEE: $25 per team (teams: up to 4 students)
Students write, edit, create and draw inspiration to craft artistic interpretations and content for a magazine spread.

Friday night at registration:
- Receive topic – All teams receive the same topic but draw inspiration and interpret the topic their own way. Students conduct interviews and take photographs from the opening until the timed portion of the contest begins Saturday afternoon. Read all instructions carefully.

Saturday at 1:30 – 4:30:
- Write and edit a piece of short fiction, an essay, a review or a poem or a combination of any listed; produce an artistic or photographic element; and design a spread in a computer lab at the School of Journalism and Mass Communications.
- Save as a PDF and print for judging. Use only materials (photos, interviews and designs) produced at SIPA.

Monitors will check once students enter the room to ensure regulations are being followed. Failure to comply with guidelines will result in immediate disqualification.
