Community Legal Services – (alumni)
Philadelphia, PA

Staff Attorney—CLS Housing Unit

Community Legal Services (CLS) of Philadelphia is seeking an attorney in its Housing Unit. CLS is one of the leading legal services programs in the country. This exciting and demanding position is for a lawyer to represent clients in public housing and private landlord-tenant matters. This position primarily entails zealous representation of a significant number of individual clients each week in court and administrative hearings. The position also entails helping to identify systemic issues and engaging in systems and policy advocacy work in consultation with the managing attorney. The staff attorney will also have housing related intake duties, project management and supervision of staff and interns as needed.

Lawyers in the Housing Unit zealously represents private, public, and subsidized housing tenants in matters involving eviction, illegal lockouts, fair housing violations, termination or loss of subsidy, and substandard housing. Representation includes all the elements of litigation including client interviewing, investigation, discovery, identifying and preparing witnesses and exhibits, pleadings, briefs, and representation at hearings at trial level and appellate levels as appropriate.

Lawyers will also be expected to provide supervision and support to paralegals, social workers, and interns who are providing advice, brief service, and some representation.

Lawyers in Housing Unit also engage in non-litigation focused advocacy, including policy, administrative and legislative advocacy, as well as organizing and teaching community and professional education sessions on a variety of issues, including lead paint elimination, domestic violence, criminal records and barriers, federal housing policy changes, tenant eviction laws etc.
Lawyers in Housing unit also work with the Managing Attorney and other attorneys in the Unit to establish connections to community and government agency partners and to develop impact advocacy strategies to remove barriers to housing and general access to the courts for low-income individuals and families.

We seek applicants with the following qualifications:

- Litigation and trial advocacy experience strongly preferred
- Minimum of 2-5 years of housing and/or litigation experience preferred
- Ability and interest in zealously representing a significant number of tenants in court and administrative hearings
- Ability to manage a significant caseload of individual clients with both public and private landlord-tenant matters
- Excellent legal analysis skills
- Excellent work ethic, organization, and communication skills
- Excellent legal research and writing skills
- Excellent oral advocacy skills
- Experience and interest in policy and other forms of advocacy
- Possess sound professional and legal judgment
- Supervisory experience preferred but not required
- Experience and ability to work with low-income and vulnerable individuals
- Illustrate a high level commitment to racial justice advocacy
- Fluency in another language helpful, but not required

To Apply: CLS will accept applications on a rolling basis until the position has been filled. You can submit your application on CLS's website online at: https://clsphila.org/about-cls/available-positions/

What to Include in your application:
Please include a cover letter, resume, three professional references and one brief writing sample (10 pages or less). Community Legal Services values a diverse work environment and strongly encourages women, people of color, people who identify as LGBTQ, and people with disabilities to apply. CLS invites all applicants to include in their cover letter a statement about how your unique background and/or experiences might contribute to the diversity, cultural vitality, and perspective of our staff and legal services practice.

This is a full-time position covered by the collective bargaining agreement between Community Legal Services, Inc. (CLS) and the Philadelphia Legal Services Union N.O.L.S.W./Local 2320/UAW. The current minimum starting salary is governed by that agreement and is subject to change according to the provisions of the current collective bargaining agreement. Raises and benefits are also governed by that agreement.

Community Legal Services, Inc. is an equal opportunity employer. CLS, Inc. does not discriminate in the selection of employees on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, sexual identity, genetics, age, national origin, disability, or veteran status. In addition to federal law requirements, CLS complies with all applicable state and local laws.
governing nondiscrimination in employment. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including recruiting, hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall and transfer, leaves of absence, compensation and training.

Deadline date to apply: 7/18/2017
Position start date: 7/25/2017

Position description:

UpRight Law is on a mission to connect consumers with attorneys through the use of cutting-edge technology. Our team members provide clients with access to justice so that they can get on the path to a debt-free future. We consistently achieve 100% year-over-year growth and were recently named one of Chicago’s top digital companies for the second year in a row.

UpRight Law is a national law firm seeking a licensed attorney to join our expanding Client RELationship Management team. We are looking for attorneys who are passionate about helping others achieve access to a fresh start and aiding in UpRight Law’s rapid growth as we reinvent how consumers access high-quality legal services.

As their primary point of contact through much of the representation, you will directly engage with clients, guiding them through the bankruptcy process from day one through the point of their case being filed, and beyond. This includes reviewing retainer agreements with clients, drafting portions of the bankruptcy petition, and successfully working with clients on budgeting and making timely payments on attorney fees to ensure timely filing of the cases. The ideal candidate will have a background in account management, experience working with clients directly, a commitment to providing exceptional client service, and an eye for detail. Preference is given to bilingual attorneys.

What you’ll do:

* Act as the primary point of contact during and outside of regular business hours for your clients
* Ensure your assigned clients make all scheduled payments, and accelerate payment plans when possible to get clients across the finish line promptly
* Educate potential clients on the available resources to help solve their financial problems
* Use your legal background to help our clients get a fresh start financially
* Build connections with clients and explain the value of UpRight Law’s services

Who you are:

* A licensed attorney with a background in account management
* Competitive and goal oriented - you are never satisfied and always strive to be better
* Passionate about helping others - you were put on this earth to make an impact and leave it better than you found it
* Flexible and adaptive to change - you thrive in a fast-paced environment and get bored with the status-quo
* Energetic and fun to work with - you take your work seriously, but don't take yourself too seriously

What you’ll enjoy:

* Competitive base pay plus generous incentives
* Opportunity to work for a fast-growing company that is disrupting an industry and changes lives every day
* Positive, fun and energetic work atmosphere that fosters collaboration
* Comprehensive benefits package including health, dental, vision and student loan repayment
* Kitchen stocked with snacks and beverages

POSITION TITLE:
TRIAL ATTORNEY
(Environmental)

DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES: The Public Integrity Unit of the Public Advocacy Division of the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia (OAG) is seeking an experienced environmental litigator to handle complex environmental law matters. The Public Advocacy
Division investigates and litigates civil cases aimed at protecting the public interest. The Public Integrity Unit brings enforcement cases against companies and individuals that engage in unlawful commercial activity causing harm to the public or harm to the District Government itself. The Division prosecutes a wide range of cases, including cases seeking damages or injunctive relief for violations of the antitrust, environmental, anti-fraud, nonprofit, and charities laws. Recent enforcement actions have addressed a wide range of public interest issues, including diversion of funding from public charter schools, misuse of District grant funds, online lending to consumers, and airline competition at Reagan National Airport.

The successful candidate will have primary responsibility for OAG’s environmental legal work. The District enters into, enforces, and complies with a number of consent decrees to clean up hazardous environmental sites. The successful candidate will evaluate these agreements, including assessing them for litigation potential, and litigating them when warranted. Further, the District has authority to enforce a number of local and federal environmental laws; for example, the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, the Clean Water Act, and the Brownfield Act. The successful candidate will evaluate facts under these laws, recommend legal strategies, and implement those strategies. The successful candidate will work closely with the District’s Department of Energy and Environment in assessing cleanups, determining strategy around consent decrees and litigation, and evaluating whether the District could be more aggressive in its enforcement of existing environmental authorities. The successful candidate will also be charged with understanding best practices in environmental litigation in other attorney general offices around the country, and suggesting improvements in the way the District does its environmental law business.

QUALIFICATIONS: A minimum of five years of relevant, environmental litigation experience is required. This experience should include handling complex matters with multiple parties involved. The candidate should also have excellent analytical, writing and litigation skills.

ELIGIBILITY: The successful candidate must have a law degree and be an active member in good standing of the bar of any jurisdiction. If not a member of the District of Columbia Bar, the candidate must be sworn into the District of Columbia Bar within 360 days of his/her initial appointment with the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia.

OTHER INFORMATION: The selected candidate will be subject to a background investigation including reference checks.

HOW TO APPLY: Candidates should e-mail one PDF file which includes: 1) a cover letter (must include the vacancy number) summarizing why you are interested and the skills and abilities you possess that will enable you to succeed in this position; 2) résumé; 3) list of three references; and 4) a writing sample to OAG.RecruitmentAttorney@dc.gov by 11:59pm of the closing date indicated above, addressed to Arlyntha Love, Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia, 441 4th Street NW, Washington, DC 20001.
PRIOIRITY CONSIDERATION: Displaced Employee Priority Placement: Candidates who are eligible for the District of Columbia’s Displaced Employee Program (DEP) and Agency Reemployment Priority Placement Program (ARPP) will be given priority consideration for this position if found qualified.

EMPLOYMENT BENEFITS: Selectee will be eligible for health and life insurance, annual (vacation) and sick leave and will be covered under the District of Columbia government’s retirement plan. However, if selectee was previously employed in the District of Columbia’s government under an appointment for which he/she was eligible for Civil Service Retirement (CSR), contributions to CSR will resume upon re-employment.

VETERANS’ PREFERENCE: Applicants claiming veterans’ preference must submit official proof at the time of application.

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE: Pursuant to the requirements of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1998, the individual selected to fill this position will, as a condition of employment, be required to notify his/her immediate supervisor, in writing, not later than five (5) days after conviction of or a plea of guilty to a violation of any criminal drug statute occurring in the workplace.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER: All qualified candidates will receive consideration without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, family responsibilities, matriculation, physical handicap, genetic information or political affiliation.

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION: In accordance with the D.C. Human Rights Act of 1977, as amended, D.C. Official Code, Section 2-1401.01 et. seq., (Act) the District of Columbia does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, familial status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, disability, genetic information, source of income, or place of residence or business. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination which is also prohibited by the Act. In addition, harassment based on any of the above protected categories is prohibited by the Act. Discrimination in violation of the Act will not be tolerated. Violators will be subject to disciplinary action.

OFFICIAL JOB OFFERS ARE TO BE MADE ONLY BY THE HUMAN RESOURCES SECTION OF THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

(Tax and Finance)
This position is in the collective bargaining unit represented by AFGE Local 1403 and you may be required to pay an agency service fee through direct payroll deduction.
DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES: The Commercial Division provides legal advice and transactional and litigation support to the District Government in the core areas of community and economic development, real estate, procurement, tax, finance, bankruptcy, land use, and public works. The successful candidate will be one of five attorneys in the Tax and Finance Section handling the District’s affirmative and defensive litigation concerning tax matters (real property, personal property, business franchise, income, recordation, transfer, estate, and inheritance).

The Tax and Finance Section litigates primarily in the Tax Division of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia and, with respect to tax sale foreclosure litigation, in the Civil Division. Section attorneys may also handle transactional work such as negotiating, drafting, and reviewing transactional documents involved in the District’s issuance of bonds and notes (e.g. general obligation, revenue, and tax increment financing), including the negotiation of terms and conditions of the issuance and preparation of the Attorney General’s opinions for the bond and note issuances, and provide advice on other municipal finance transactions. In addition, Section attorneys assist the Land Acquisition and Bankruptcy Section in the acquisition of real property for municipal purposes. The incumbent exercises independent judgment and handles a substantial case load.

QUALIFICATIONS: Applicants must have three or more years of litigation experience, preferably in area of tax, developable familiarity with property valuation concepts, and excellent oral and written communication skills.

ELIGIBILITY: The successful candidate must have a law degree and be an active member in good standing of the bar of any jurisdiction. If not a member of the District of Columbia Bar, the candidate must be sworn into the District of Columbia Bar within 360 days of his/her initial appointment with the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia.

OTHER INFORMATION: The selected candidate will be subject to a background investigation including reference checks.

Litigation Attorney - Subrogation & Recovery Department

Cozen O'Connor seeks an associate with at least three years of litigation experience to join our Charlotte, North Carolina office's Subrogation and Recovery Department. Candidates should have experience drafting pleadings, discovery requests and responses, motions, and briefs; preparing for and attending court hearings; taking and defending depositions; and communicating with clients and opposing counsel. Candidates with experience investigating, analyzing, and litigating property subrogation and recovery claims and/or litigating the defense of property and product liability claims are ideal. Experience as a prosecutor is also a plus. This position offers the opportunity for the associate to develop and hone high level litigation and trial skills. Excellent academic credentials and strong research, writing, and oral advocacy skills are required. Candidates barred in both North Carolina and South Carolina are preferred.

Cozen O'Connor founded the subrogation and recovery practice in the early 1970s and remains the world’s leading subrogation and recovery law firm. Our team of more than 100 attorneys represents the largest insurers and reinsurers in the United States, Canada, England, and other international venues. In addition to representing the insurance industry, we handle self-insured recovery claims for many Fortune 500 and Fortune 1000 companies. We recover in excess of $200 million annually on behalf of our clients.

Interested candidates should submit their application materials at www.cozen.com/careers/laterals.

Remote Attorneys (Full-time and Part-time)

Position description:

A well-established Mount Pleasant, SC law office seeks experienced attorneys to grow its practice.

Open to adding transactional attorneys, lawyers offering legal advice/work product to clients and litigators.

Prefer candidates with a portable book of business/regular stream of paying clients; however, will consider attorneys practicing in an area of law with exciting growth potential.

Open to part-time attorneys and full-time attorneys. Prefer remote work situations with no need for a legal assistant/paralegal. Must be licensed to practice law in South Carolina and in good standing with the SC Bar.

Open to all practice areas. However, this opportunity would work well for an attorney who operates an advisory type practice, i.e., rendering employment law advice/preparing employee handbooks; working with companies on corporate formation and day-to-day business advice; helping companies with compliance issues and technology agreements; providing guidance on health care, privacy and cybersecurity issues; advising companies on energy/environmental issues, etc.

Compensation is a generous percentage of your collections. Office promotes flexible work schedule/vacation and work/life balance. No billable hour requirement.

This opportunity is perfect for someone who wants to gain control of their life again and enjoy a better professional career experience.

Potential candidates may include attorneys who:
● who are returning to practice after an absence; ● are scaling back their practice for a variety of reasons; ● work for a law firm paying them an unacceptable percentage of their collections; ● are sick of unrealistic billable hour requirements; ● want to escape their current firm culture and have quality of life; ● are tired of running/owning a law firm and want to focus on practicing law; and/or ● do not want to make the ongoing capital investment to open/run a law firm.

All inquiries kept strictly confidential. Interested candidates should send a cover letter or email, resume (or a link to your attorney bio) and contact information to Rob Hadden, rhadden@haddenlawfirm.com

Position description:
Leading national tax resolution firm is seeking an attorney in our Bend, Oregon office to represent taxpayers who are in collections with the IRS and/or various state taxing authorities. We have a casual office environment, as nearly all of our work is done over the telephone. Job involves heavy client contact via telephone and written correspondence. It also involves heavy contact with the taxing authorities via telephone and written correspondence. We settle tax debts, set up installment agreements, abate penalties, assist taxpayers in restructuring debt, represent taxpayers in appeals, and protect our clients from enforcement (i.e. bank levies, accounts receivable levies, tax liens, asset seizures, etc.). Our work is highly specialized and we deal with only a small fraction of the tax code. The vast majority of our attorneys' time is spent advocating for their clients, counseling clients, and engaging in verbal and written negotiations. The job involves minimal legal research and zero litigation. Almost all of our clients are small or medium sized businesses. Each attorney is provided with an assistant for administrative support. The work is a lot more fun than one might associate with the word “tax.”

This is an excellent opportunity for someone who enjoys having a life outside of work. Weekly work schedule rarely exceeds 40 hours and our attorneys almost never work on weekends. Unlike typical law firms, we will comprehensively train the right candidate to be one of the best attorneys in this field.

Medical and dental insurance provided after 90 days. Employees are eligible for our 401(k) program, which includes company matching, after 1 year. Total annual compensation ranges from $75,000-$135,000.
