

Jennifer R. Joe, CPA is the Whitney Family Professor of Accounting at the University of Delaware. Currently, she is an Academic Fellow at KPMG where she serves as the Director of the Academic Research Institute at KPMG Global. Jennifer's research, focused on audit judgment and financial governance, is published in Accounting Organizations and Society, Auditing: A Journal of Practice and Theory, Contemporary Accounting Research, Journal of Accounting Research, and The Accounting Review. She was an Editor of Auditing: A Journal of Practice and Theory, and served on several academic committees including Chair of the American Accounting Association Auditing Doctoral Consortium, Chair of the Notable and Distinguished Contributions to the Accounting Literature Award Screening Committee, and member of the Center for Audit Quality Research Access Panel. At the University of Delaware,

Jennifer is the Chief Diversity Advocate for Lerner College, and received the 2018 Lerner College Outstanding Service Award. Jennifer is member of the editorial board at Auditing: A Journal of Practice and Theory, and serves as an ad hoc reviewer for several journals including The Accounting Review, Accounting Organizations and Society, Contemporary Accounting Research, and Behavioral Research in Accounting.