

Greetings and Welcome

Welcome back to a new academic school year. This year will mark our organization's 87th year, and the Executive Committee is excited to announce that Patricia Moore-Pastides will continue our Fall Coffee tradition at the President's House. We look forward to visiting with her at the end of the month as we welcome newcomers to the University community. In addition, we will have the opportunity to learn about the latest interest group: the Living Well/Wine Group, so save the date (September 29) and join us for a little southern hospitality.
