Upcoming fall national fellowships deadlines:
GEM Fellowships: This award is designed to offer opportunities for underrepresented minority students to obtain MS degrees in engineering and Ph.D. degrees in engineering and the natural and physical sciences through a program of paid summer internships and graduate financial assistance. Final application due electronically Thursday, November 15. US Citizens only.

American-Scandinavian Scholarship: The American-Scandinavian Foundation (ASF) offers fellowships (up to $23,000) and grants (up to $5,000) to research or study in one or more Scandinavian countries for up to one academic year. Awards are made in all fields of study. Electronic applications due: 3 a.m. Friday, November 2, 2012; supporting documents due to OFSP by noon, Monday, October 29 to meet November 1 receipt date.

The Paul and Daisy Soros Fellowship for New Americans: This award offers up to $90,000 of support for two years of graduate study in any field to students who are New Americans (defined as a green card holder or naturalized citizen if born abroad, or the child of a naturalized citizen if born in this country). Eligible students must be in their senior year, holder of a bachelor’s degree, or not beyond the second year in the graduate program for which they request support. Electronic application due Friday, November 9, 2012.

The Ford Foundation Fellowship Program: The Ford Foundation seeks to increase the diversity of the nation’s college and university faculties by increasing their ethnic and racial diversity, to maximize the educational benefits of diversity, and to increase the number of professors who can and will use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students. Ford Foundation Fellowship awards are offered at the Predoctoral, Dissertation and Postdoctoral levels, and provide annual stipends of $20,000 (Predoctoral and Dissertation) and $40,000 (Postdoctoral). Awards are made to individuals who have demonstrated superior academic achievement, are committed to a career in teaching and research at the college or university level, show promise of future achievement as scholars and teachers, and are well prepared to use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students. Predoctoral application due November 14, 2012. Dissertation and Postdoctoral application due November 19, 2012. Supplementary Materials for all levels must be received by January 9, 2013. US Citizens only.
