PREPARING FOR THE ADVISING SEASON

Best Practice Recommendations
THE FOLLOWING PRACTICES ARE RECOMMENDED BEFORE THE START OF THE ADVISEMENT SEASON:

• Advisors should email advisees prior to start of advisement to explain how the advisement process works and advisement policies specific to the college/department

• Advisors in each department/college should meet as a team prior to the start of the advising season. The team should:
  • Review curriculum
  • Review college and campus policies
  • Discuss DegreeWorks audit and any common/shared issues
  • Create calendar of events

• Create appointment availability using EAB Navigate

• Advisors are encouraged to create, update, and review EAB Navigate watchlists for tracking advisees

• Prompt students to review their audit prior to appointment

• Pre-advise students as necessary

Additional Notes
GENERAL NOTES

General notes are not tied to a specific student appointment or event. These notes should be used for general record keeping. Notes can be made visible to students when the advisor opts to make them viewable.

General Notes may include the following:

- Important e-mail correspondences
  - Changes to course schedule
  - Student requests

- Student Forms
  - Senior Checks
  - Study Abroad
  - Special Enrollment Forms
  - FERPA Forms
  - Athletic Certifications
  - Grade Forgiveness Form – SCHC form

- Make Notes visible to students as appropriate.

- Advisor discretion should be used when documenting the following:
  - HIPPA and Health related correspondences
  - Mental Health Concerns
  - Concerns about professors or professionals on campus
  - Student Disability Resource Center documents and correspondences

- General Notes are viewable to all faculty and staff with access to the EAB platform.
REPORT SUMMARY NOTES

Report Summary Notes are tied to a specific student appointment or event. Report Summary Notes should include advisor transactions and session highlights. These notes cannot be made visible to students.

Report Summary Notes may include the following:

- Referrals
  - Disability Resource Center
  - Counseling Center
  - Withdrawal
  - Suggested language when discretion is needed: “Student disclosed a personal issue and I made a referral to the appropriate campus resource.”

- Session Notes
  - Topics discussed including but not limited to course recommendations, graduation timelines, future goals and plans, campus involvement, financial concerns and scholarships, interest in major change, etc.
  - Student attributes such as preferred name and pronouns of student, student’s personal background information, and any characteristics that the advisor would like to remember about the student.

- Report Summary Notes are viewable to all faculty and staff in the EAB Advising Care Unit.
Include information and action items for the student and possible consequences of not following advice given.

DEGREEWORKS

Best Practices for Audit Use
DEGREEWORKS AUDIT

The following practices are recommended before the start of the advisement appointment:

- Instruct students to review their audit prior to the advising appointment
- Encourage students to identify a list of courses they are interested in taking based on remaining requirements
  - Suggest students review the “Registration Checklist” Format option in addition to viewing the audit
- Review audit for accuracy and make any needed corrections
  - Review exceptions
  - Review fall-through courses to ensure they are not degree applicable
  - Review curriculum and catalog year
- Check student’s GPA
- Anticipate possible questions the student might have during the appointment

The following practices are recommended during the start of the advisement appointment:

Educate students on how to use the audit

- Ensure students know how to access their DegreeWorks audit
- Review applied exceptions
- Emphasize the importance of “Process New” when viewing the audit
- Clarify different categories of requirements (major, minor, Carolina Core, etc.) and explain if the course can meet more than one requirement
- Demonstrate how to view course descriptions
- Empower students to use the audit to answer questions they have regarding their degree course requirements

The following practices are recommended after the advisement appointment:

- Process needed exceptions
- Enter course recommendations as a note if not using the Student Education Planner
- Freeze the audit
