

Withdrawal Checklist

Additional steps may be required depending on your situation.

If you are planning to leave the University of South Carolina:

- Contact your Academic Advisor if you have questions about academic guidelines, progression to degree, and advisement.
- Speak with the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships to discuss the impact that withdrawing may have on your financial aid and scholarships. Withdrawal from courses may result in additional charges on your bill. Please contact Financial Aid for further information.
 - 📍 1244 Blossom Street
 - 📞 803-777-8134
- Drop your classes. If you are not currently registered for courses, DO NOT enroll. If you have a housing contract, please see “Cancel On-Campus Housing” under Additional Steps on this sheet BEFORE dropping your courses.

Readmission to the University of South Carolina:

If a student misses a major semester (fall or spring,) they MUST submit a readmission application to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Readmission is not automatic and is based on the student’s academic record. Students must meet major and/or transfer requirements to be readmitted. For additional information, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.
