

NUMBER: EOP 1.02
SECTION: Equal Opportunity Programs
SUBJECT: Prior Sexual Harassment Policy (In effect before September 20, 2019)
DATE: January 1, 1995
REVISED: March 14, 2014
Policy for: All Campuses
Procedure for: All Campuses
Authorized by: Bobby D. Gist
Issued by: Equal Opportunity Programs

- I. Policy
 - A. Academic and employment discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, gender, age, disability, sexual orientation, genetics or veteran status violates federal law, state law and University policy. "Sexual harassment" is a particular form of gender discrimination, distinctive in both characteristic and quality.
 - B. The University of South Carolina will not tolerate the sexual harassment of any member of the University community. Sexual harassment subverts the mission of the University by threatening the careers, educational experiences, and well-being of all members of this community. It undermines the University's deep commitment to the primacy of a reward system based purely on merit, intellectual excellence, and job performance.
 - C. The University, however, is also committed to freedom of speech and to the liberty of academics to teach, publish, and profess matters that others may find offensive.
 - D. The purpose of this policy is to define "sexual harassment" in both the University employment and academic contexts, to provide procedures for the investigation of sexual harassment claims, and to insure that violations are fully remedied, while also protecting the constitutional and academic rights of every member of this community.
 - E. The standards mandated by this policy represent the bare minimum of acceptable behavior. The University's commitment to civility, mutual respect, and tolerance should cause the members of this community to adhere to an even higher standard of behavior in these matters -- not because we are required to do so, but because conscience dictates it.
 - F. In addition to those relationships expressly forbidden, consensual relationships among members of the University community in which one party exercises academic or administrative control over the other are deemed unwise and are strongly discouraged. If a charge of sexual harassment is lodged regarding a once-consenting relationship, the burden may be on the alleged offender to prove that this Sexual Harassment Policy was not violated.

II. Sexual Harassment

A. Coverage

This policy covers sexual harassment by and among all members of the University community -- including faculty, staff, and students. The prohibited harassment may arise between employment supervisors and subordinates, between instructors and students, between peers, or between any of the foregoing persons and persons who do business with the University.

B. Definitions

1. "Members of the University community" includes all faculty, adjuncts, visiting faculty, teaching assistants, administrators, staff, students, and persons engaged in research.
2. "The University EOP" is the Executive Assistant to the President for Equal Opportunity Programs (hereafter referred to as University EOP), or his or her designee, with special responsibilities to carry out the provisions of this Sexual Harassment Policy.
3. The "Campus Sexual Harassment Representative" is the person designated by the Chancellor or Regional Campus Dean to have special responsibilities to carry out the provisions of this Sexual Harassment Policy in conjunction with the University EOP.
4. The "Unit Liaison" is an informational resource person selected by the President, Chancellor or Regional Campus Dean to serve the respective academic or employment unit in matters related to sexual harassment.
5. "Employment benefits" includes the job itself, the duties of the job, compensation, rank privileges and opportunities associated with the job, the tools and working environment necessary to do the job, and any other term or condition of employment.
6. "Academic benefits" includes grades, scholarships and other honors, class enrollment and research opportunities, job recommendations, and letters of recommendation for further studies or employment.
7. Sexual harassment of employees or students at the University is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, verbal or other expressive behaviors or physical conduct commonly understood to be of a sexual nature. Sexual harassment includes but is not limited to the following:

- a. Threats to make an adverse employment or academic decision if another person refuses to engage in sexual activities.
- b. Demands that another person engage in sexual activities in order to obtain or retain employment or academic benefits.
- c. Promises, implied or direct, to give employment or academic benefits if another person engages in sexual activities.
- d. Unwelcome and unnecessary touching or other sexually suggestive physical contact, or threats to engage in such conduct.
- e. Indecent exposure.
- f. Invasion of sexual privacy.
- g. Sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexual comments and questions, and other sexually-oriented conduct that is directed against a specific individual and persists despite its rejection.
- h. Conduct, even that not specifically directed at the complainant, which is sufficiently pervasive, severe, or persistent to alter the conditions of the complainant's employment or status as a student and create a hostile working or learning environment, when viewed from the perspective of a reasonable person of the complainant's gender.

C. Education and Prevention

1. Education is an essential component in the prevention and elimination of sexual harassment. A claim of ignorance is not a defense.
2. To accomplish an adequate educational program the President shall:
 - a. Inform members of the University community of the Sexual Harassment Policy and programs to assure their implementation.
 - b. Mandate each unit head to make available to all persons within the unit a training program on sexual harassment at least every two years.
 - c. Assure that the Office of the University EOP has sufficiently trained staff to carry out educational programs on sexual harassment policy.

- d. Appoint Unit Liaisons as channels for communication, education and advice on sexual harassment policy content, procedures and claims. On campuses other than Columbia, Unit Liaisons shall be appointed by the Chancellor or Regional Campus Dean.

D. Subcommittee of the Affirmative Action Advisory Committee

1. This Policy establishes the Affirmative Action Advisory Committee as the committee charged with monitoring educational functions such as:
 - a. Developing educational materials.
 - b. Training appropriate administrative officials and Unit Liaisons.
 - c. Providing educational programs for special audiences within the University community, such as orientation seminars on sexual harassment for new faculty and students.
 - d. Providing education directed to the special needs of identified groups and individuals, such as foreign students, or in response to specific requests.
 - e. Providing educational programs for the community at large.
2. The University EOP shall serve as custodian of confidential documents of the Affirmative Action Advisory Committee related to sexual harassment.
3. The Affirmative Action Advisory Committee shall monitor compliance with all aspects of the Sexual Harassment Policy.

E. Prohibited Conduct

1. A member of the University community shall not engage in the sexual harassment of another member of the University community.
2. A member of the University community shall not encourage, condone, or fail to take reasonable steps within this person's power to stop the sexual harassment of another member of the University community, regardless of whether the harassment is by another member of the University community or by persons doing business with the University.
 - a. A member of the University community shall not retaliate, threaten to retaliate, or attempt to cause retaliation against any person (1) who reasonably protests against sexual harassment practices within the University or (2) who becomes involved in any capacity in the procedures established in this Sexual Harassment Policy.

- b. However, discipline may be imposed on a member of the University community who abuses the procedures established in this Sexual Harassment Policy (1) by making claims of sexual harassment knowing them to be false or in reckless disregard of their truth or falsity, or (2) by making claims involving conduct that this person knows or has reason to know are not prohibited by this Policy.
3. A member of the University community shall not refuse to cooperate in the investigation of a sexual harassment complaint, but may assert whatever testimonial and evidentiary privileges available to that person by law.

F. Sanctions

1. Persons who violate the Sexual Harassment Policy are subject to appropriate discipline by the University. If an investigation results in a finding that this Policy has been violated, the mandatory minimum discipline is a written reprimand. The discipline for the most serious violations may be termination from employment (and revocation of tenure) if the violator is an employee, or permanent expulsion if the violator is a student.
2. Persons who violate this Policy may also be subject to civil damages or criminal penalties.

G. Enforcement Procedures

1. Sexual Harassment Resources within the University
 - a. Sources of advice and assistance with the procedures of the Sexual Harassment Policy are available to all members of the University community. They include the Unit Liaison; Campus Sexual Harassment Representative; Vice President for Student Affairs; Vice President for Human Resources; Unit Chairs or Directors; Chair of the Affirmative Action Advisory Committee; Chair of the Equity Oversight Subcommittee of the Faculty Welfare Committee; and the University EOP.
 - b. The Division of Human Resources and Office of Equal Opportunity Programs shall provide the above named with training in prevention, education, and the law of sexual harassment.
2. Informal Resolution Procedures (Optional)
 - a. A person who believes that he or she has been the victim of sexual harassment should initially attempt to discuss the matter with the person(s) thought to have engaged in the harassment. This procedure may be the most effective and least burdensome manner of resolving the problem.

3. Complaints

- a. To initiate an investigation of an alleged violation of this Policy, a person must file a sexual harassment complaint.
- b. The complaint must be filed with the Office of the University EOP, or the Campus Sexual Harassment Representative who will forward it to the University EOP.
- c. The complaint must be sworn to and filed within 180 calendar days of the last occurrence of the alleged event.
- d. The complaint must be submitted in writing to the University and signed by the complainant.
- e. The University EOP, or Campus Sexual Harassment Representative, shall assist the complainant in completing the Sexual Harassment Complaint form. In order to insure the prompt and thorough investigation of a sexual harassment complaint, the complainant should be prepared to provide as much of the following information as is possible:
 - i. The name, department, and position of the complainant;
 - ii. The name, department, and position of the person or persons allegedly causing the harassment;
 - iii. The specific acts complained of, including dates and location;
 - iv. The effect this has had on the complainant's employment or academic pursuits;
 - v. The names of any witnesses to the harassment;
 - vi. The names of other members of the University community who might have been subjected to the same or similar harassment;
 - vii. What steps the complainant has already taken to stop the harassment; and
 - viii. Any other information the complainant believes relative to the harassment complained of.
- f. The Sexual Harassment Complaint form shall contain a provision informing the complainant that the information contained in the complaint will be kept as confidential as possible, but that the identity of the complainant will be revealed to the alleged harasser, potential witnesses, and other persons within the University with a need to know.

- g. The University EOP or the Campus Sexual Harassment Representative shall provide the complainant a written acknowledgement of the complaint.

4. Investigation

- a. The University EOP shall appoint an investigator and schedule an investigation of the complaint within ten working days after receipt of a complaint.
- b. The University EOP shall contact the charged party, give that party a copy of the complaint, solicit that party's response to the complaint, inform that party that a recommendation and report will be completed within the time limits provided for in this Policy (regardless of whether the charged party chooses to respond), and advise that party of the right to be represented by counsel.
- c. If both parties are agreeable, the University EOP shall attempt to mediate the complaint. If the parties agree to a resolution of the matter, a settlement agreement shall be prepared.
 - i. The settlement agreement must:
 - 1. be voluntary and be in writing;
 - 2. be signed by both parties;
 - 3. contain a provision in which the party against whom the complaint was made gives assurances that the offensive behavior will stop and not be repeated, and that no retaliation will be taken against the complainant;
 - 4. contain a provision in which the party who makes the complaint gives assurances that no further complaints will be made, providing the offensive behavior is stopped and does not reoccur;
 - 5. contain any other provision the University EOP deems necessary to insure full compliance with this Policy.
 - ii. The University EOP shall provide a copy of the settlement agreement to both parties, and shall file the original in the Equal Opportunity Programs Office and a copy shall be maintained by the Office of Human Resources.
 - iii. The University EOP shall recommend to the appropriate Vice President, Chancellor, or Campus Dean restoration of any academic or employment benefits lost by the complainant as a result of the alleged sexual harassment.

- d. In the event the parties do not reach a voluntary settlement agreement, the University EOP shall conduct a full investigation which may include obtaining oral and/or written statements from any person either the complainant or the charged party has listed as a witness, as well as from any other person who might have knowledge about the alleged offense.
 - e. If during the investigation the University EOP believes that harassment or retaliation is occurring, the University EOP may recommend to the appropriate University officer that immediate steps be taken to stop any further harassment or retaliation.
 - f. The University EOP shall attempt to complete the investigation within thirty working days. Except in the most unusual circumstances, all investigation shall be completed within sixty working days. The sexual harassment investigative process is a non-adversarial procedure and there shall be no cross-examination of witnesses by either the Charged Party or the Complainant or the legal counsel representing either the Charged Party or the complainant.
 - g. The University EOP shall treat all information received during the investigation as confidential and shall make it available only to appropriate University officials who have a need to know.
5. Report and Recommendation
- a. The University EOP shall prepare a written Report and Recommendation immediately following the completion of the investigation. Except in the most unusual circumstances, the Report must be completed within fifteen working days after the completion of the investigation.
 - b. The Report and Recommendation shall contain the following:
 - i. A summary of the complaint;
 - ii. A summary of the response by the party against whom the complaint was made;
 - iii. A summary of the statements and evidence obtained during the investigation;
 - iv. A finding of whether a violation of this Policy, including the prohibition against reckless false accusation, has occurred. The findings shall include a statement about the severity of the violation, if any, and an explanation that supports the finding.

- v. A summary of prior settlements or substantiated complaints against the charged party;
 - vi. A recommendation of a sanction, if appropriate, made in consultation with the System Legal Department and the Division of Human Resources;
 - vii. A recommendation as to the restoration of any academic or employment benefits lost as a result of the alleged sexual harassment; and
 - viii. An appendix containing the complaint, sworn statements, and other tangible evidence obtained during the investigation.
- c. The Report and Recommendation shall be sent to the Vice President for Human Resources, General Counsel, and to the appropriate University officer for decision. The Deciding Officer is the appropriate Vice President, Chancellor, or Regional Campus Dean. A copy of the Report and Recommendation shall then be provided to the complainant and the charged party.
- d. Either party may respond in writing to the Report and Recommendation. This response must be sent to the Deciding Officer within ten working days.
6. Decision and Imposition of Sanction
- a. On the basis of the Report and Recommendation and any responses that are filed to it, the Deciding Officer may:
- i. Dismiss the complaint, if it is found to be without merit. The Deciding Officer shall also determine if discipline against the complainant is warranted in the case of a frivolous or malicious complaint and, if so, shall impose appropriate discipline.
 - ii. Order further investigation, for a period not to exceed ten working days, and require a Supplementary Report and Recommendation.
 - iii. Sustain the complaint, order the harassment to stop, impose sanctions, recommend the initiation of tenure revocation, recommend restoration of any employment or academic benefits the complainant lost because of the harassment, and provide whatever other relief is necessary to remedy the situation. Determination of a sanction shall be made in consultation with the System Legal Department and the Division of Human Resources.
- b. If the charged party has alleged that the conduct is constitutionally protected, the Deciding Officer must obtain the written opinion of University counsel concerning this issue. University counsel shall provide that opinion within ten working days after being requested to do so.

- c. The Deciding Officer shall render a final written decision within twenty working days from the expiration of the time the parties have for filing responses to the University EOP's original or Supplementary Report and Recommendation, as the case may be, and shall serve a copy of that decision on both the complainant and the charged party.
- d. The Deciding Officer shall inform the charged party's unit head of the decision. If the violation is found to have occurred, the unit head shall be advised of the sanction being imposed. The Deciding Officer shall send a copy of all decisions to the University EOP.
 - i. If the charged party is a faculty or staff member and the Deciding Officer concludes that a violation has occurred, the Deciding Officer shall also include a copy of the decision in the employee's system personnel file.
 - ii. If the charged party is a student and the Deciding Officer concludes that a violation has occurred, the Deciding Officer shall forward a copy of the decision to the Campus Chief Academic Officer.

7. Grievance Procedures

This Policy leaves intact all grievance procedures available to the charged party pursuant to University policy and applicable law.

8. Monitoring Compliance

If the parties have reached an agreement or a complaint has been sustained by the Deciding Officer, the University EOP shall for a period of at least three months monitor compliance with the agreement or decision to insure that the harassment does not reoccur and that the complainant is not subjected to retaliation.

9. Other Available Procedures

The procedures available under this Policy do not preempt or supersede any legal procedures or remedies otherwise available to a victim of sexual harassment under the University grievance process, the State employee grievance process, the State Human Affairs Law, the state or federal law, the United States Constitution, or any other applicable law.

H. Dissemination of the Policy

- 1. A copy of this Policy shall be contained in the University Policies and Procedures. The name, phone number, and location of the University EOP, Campus Sexual Harassment Representative, Unit Liaison, and Chair of the Affirmative Action Advisory Committee, shall be posted on appropriate bulletin boards.

III. Reason for Revision

The revision clarifies the language of several sections throughout the policy and updates policies to comply with current procedures and University Policy.
