Faculty Senate Information Technology Committee Report
March 4, 2020

Part of our committee's charge is to "survey periodically faculty regarding the efficacy of IT resources including general services and infrastructure that support the missions of teaching, research, and service." Look for our second annual survey on this topic in the weeks to come. Please participate!