INFRATIONS

This is completed by the College Panhellenic president or fraternity/sorority advisor after a College Panhellenic Violation Report has been properly filed. This must be given to the accused sorority president or designated representative within seven days of receiving the College Panhellenic Violation Report. Distribute a copy to the fraternity/sorority advisor and the NPC area advisor within the same time period. The seven-day timeline applies even during college/university breaks.

University/college: University of South Carolina

Accused sorority: ______________ Date of notification: 8-29-16

-Bid promising during conversation in party

Date(s) of alleged violation(s): 8-20-16

*Violations must be reported within 30 days of the alleged infraction.

Infraction filed by: ______________ Date infraction filed: 8-20-16

Rights and obligations of accused sorority:
The accused sorority has the right to resolve the alleged infraction through mediation and/or a judicial board hearing. The accused sorority is responsible for contacting the College Panhellenic president within seven days of receiving this infraction notice to schedule mediation. Mediation is held unless the accused sorority chooses to proceed directly to a judicial hearing. The mediation or the judicial board hearing does not have to occur within the seven-day period; it must be scheduled as soon as possible at a time convenient for the parties involved. If the infraction notice is received during a college/university break, the mediation or judicial board hearing can be deferred until classes resume.

To schedule a mediation or judicial board hearing, contact the person below by ______________ [date].
