6.2: The University shall have the right to terminate this Contract if the Student fails to occupy the assigned space on or before the first day of classes and does not give proper notice of later arrival to University Housing. In such a situation, the Student remains liable for the full payment or room rental charges for both semesters.

Upon release of the Contract for a failure of the University under Sections 3.2 and 3.3 herein, which render the premises (room and/or residence hall) uninhabitable, the University shall remit to the Student an amount representative of the remaining days of the semester or make another assignment in accordance with provisions in 3.2 and 2.4.

6.5: The University reserves the right to reassign (to a comparable facility, if available) any Student as deemed appropriate and in the best interest of the residential community as determined by the Director of Housing or his/her designee.
