As a precaution, all training courses offered by the Division of Human Resources’ Office of Organizational and Professional Development are postponed for three weeks beginning Friday, March 13, 2020.

We will reassess the situation and provide updates on courses scheduled after Friday, April 3, 2020 as the university continues to monitor the impact of COVID-19 in South Carolina.

It is our desire to do everything that we can to protect the health and well-being of everyone on campus and their families. The cancelling of all OPD training events on campus for this period of time will allow us the opportunity to maintain the “social distancing” that is recommended to prevent the spread of the coronavirus.

All registered participants will be notified by email and courses may be rescheduled at a later time.

Thank you for understanding and we apologize for the inconvenience.
