Pre-Week Events

Wednesday Nov. 12: 6-9pm
ISA Dance Extravaganza
Russell House Ballroom A
Join us for a night of dancing to begin the week of events. USC student groups will be there to teach dances from around the world. Light refreshments will be provided.
Sponsors: International Student Association

Friday Nov. 14: 7-9pm
Salsa Night
Capstone Campus Room
Come learn Salsa with the student organization that knows how to teach you. Check out www.facebook.com/SALAUSC for more information
Sponsors: Students Associated for Latin America (SALA)

Friday Nov. 14: 7:30
An Evening of Indian Music, presented by Southern Exposure New Music Series
USC School of Music Recital Hall (813 Assembly St.)
The concert features sitar virtuoso Kartik Seshadri, one of the world's leading musicians. Seshadri has been called "breathtaking," an “amazingly accomplished” musical powerhouse noted for his music’s “expressive beauty, rich tonal sensibility, and rhythmic intricacy,” (Washington Post). KartikSeshadri.com, sitar// Abhijit Banerjee, tabla
Cost: Free

Saturday Nov. 15: 8:30-12:30pm
Service Saturday
Location depends on assignment, Must preregister to attend
What better way to understand the world than to serve those around us. American and International students are invited to join in this Saturday for community service.
See sa.sc.edu/communityservice/servicesat/ for more details.
Sponsor: Service and Leadership Center

Sunday Nov. 16: 2pm
Ernest and Celestine, film
Columbia Museum of Art
A 2012 French-Belgian animated comedy-drama film directed by Stéphane Aubier, Vincent Patar and Benjamin Renner. The film is based on a series of children's books of the same name published by the Belgian author and illustrator Gabrielle Vincent.
Cost: Free
Sponsors: Cine Cola & International Programs

Sunday Nov. 16: 2pm
Half A Yellow Sun, film
Nickelodeon Theatre
A 2013 Nigerian historical drama film directed by Biyi Bandele and based on the novel of the same name by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie. The film is a love story that follows two sisters who are caught up in the outbreak of the Nigerian Civil War. facebook.com/groups/USCPANASA
Cost: $1
Sponsor: PANASA
Official Week Events

Monday through Friday, Nov. 17-21, Dinner time
International Menus at the Grand Marketplace
The Russell House Grand Marketplace

The Grand Marketplace will feature a different international menu every day of the week during IEW. Taste the food of the world and enjoy the travel experience without the plane ride.
Sponsor: Carolina Dining

Monday through Friday, Nov. 17-21, any time
Heroes of the World Library Resources and Display
The Thomas Cooper Library, main lobby

In celebration of IEW, the display cases on the main floor of the library display a collection of international books and DVDs that embody heroes from around the world. Take notice of the many items that display the diversity of cultures represented on campus at USC.
Sponsor: Thomas Cooper Library

Monday Nov. 17: 10:30-11:30am MOVED TO FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21st
International Parade

Starting on the Horseshoe, student groups will represent their home country or the country from their study abroad while carrying flags around campus. See parade route on the registration form.
Sign up at https://uscips.wufoo.com/forms/iew-2014-parade-group-registration/
Sponsors: English Programs for Internationals & International Student Services

Monday Nov. 17: 11-2pm MOVED TO FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21st
International Bazaar
Davis Field

Celebrate cultures from around the world with dancing, music, food, and creative displays!
Sponsors: International Student Services & English Programs for Internationals

Monday Nov. 17: 4:30-6pm (Invitation Only)
Reception with My Perestroika director, Robin Hessman
Maxcy Dining Room

Students, faculty, and staff are invited to meet and mingle with award winning director Robin Hessman prior to the screening of her film, My Perestroika. Light refreshments will be provided.
Sponsors: International Programs, the Walker Institute for International and Area Studies, Film and Media Studies Program, International House at Maxcy College, Media Arts Program, and Russian and Eurasian Studies Program.

Monday Nov. 17: 6:30-9:30pm
My Perestroika
Russell House Theater

The film depicts five ordinary Russians living in extraordinary times — from their sheltered Soviet childhood, to the collapse of the Soviet Union during their teenage years, to the constantly shifting political landscape of post-Soviet Russia. See more at: http://myperestroika.com/#sthash.XZIZs9JU.dpuf
A Q&A with Director Robin Hessman immediately following the film screening.
Sponsors: International Programs, the Walker Institute for International and Area Studies, Film and Media Studies Program, International House at Maxcy College, Media Arts Program, and Russian and Eurasian Studies Program.
Tuesday Nov. 18: 1:30-3pm
Cross-Cultural Card Game
Maxcy Dining Room
Come play a game called Barnga, in which players experience for themselves how cultures collide. It will either make you laugh or want to scream or both- but in any event, it will raise your cross-cultural awareness.
Sponsor: English Programs for Internationals

Tuesday Nov. 18: 2-3pm (Invitation Only)
International Crafts with the Children’s Center at USC
English Programs for Internationals, James F. Byrnes Building
EPI students host the Children’s Center at USC for an hour of crafts and games.
Sponsor: English Programs for Internationals

Tuesday Nov. 18: 5-7pm (Invitation Only)
Buddies Beyond Borders and Thinking Globally Thanksgiving Celebration
Maxcy Dining Room
Thinking Globally ambassadors and Buddies Beyond Borders participants are invited to share a traditional Thanksgiving meal together. American buddies’ favorite Thanksgiving dishes along with a delicious catered meal from Lizard’s Thicket will ensure that no one leaves hungry! ISS is thankful for our Thinking Globally and Buddies Beyond Borders participants, and we want to celebrate you!
Sponsor: International Student Services

Tuesday Nov. 18: 7:30-8:30pm
Academic Panel Discussion: Ebola
Gambrell 153
A discussion on Ebola led by expert faculty, staff, and a student at USC.
Dr. Eric Brenner
Medical Epidemiologist, Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics, Arnold School of Public Health
Dr. Judy Chontos-Komorowski
Assistant Medical Director, Thomson Student Health Center
Dean Charles Bierbauer
Dean, College of Mass Communications and Information Studies
Mohamed Traore
Graduate Student in Environmental Health Sciences, Arnold School of Public Health, Fulbright Recipient
Sponsor: International Student Services

Tuesday Nov. 18: 7:30pm
Jodi Cobb’s Stranger in a Strange Land: presented by National Geographic LIVE!
Harbison Theatre at Midlands Technical College. 7300 College St. Irmo, SC
Spend an evening with the first female photographer at National Geographic magazine and the first woman named White House Photographer of the Year. HarbisonTheatre.org// 803-407-5011
Cost: 18$ or 10% discount for groups of 8+

Wednesday Nov. 19: 3-6pm
Heroes of the World Cup
Strom Thurmond Wellness and Fitness Center on Intramural Fields 1 & 2
After the summer World Cup, USC is proud to introduce our own World Cup. Eight teams will compete in a soccer tournament on Wednesday afternoon. Teams or individuals are encouraged to register by visiting the Intramurals, EPI, or ISS offices. Register 11 or more players per team.
Sponsors: International Student Services, Study Abroad, EPI, and Intramurals Sports Office
Wednesday Nov. 19: 4-5:30pm (Invitation Only)
Fulbright Reception
Gressette Room in Harper College
The Fulbright reception is a celebration for USC students, staff, and faculty who are Fulbright applicants and recipients, and also for those University colleagues who support the Fulbright program.
Sponsors: Office of the Provost, International Support for Faculty and Staff, Fellowships and Scholar Programs, International Student Services, and the Walker Institute for International and Area Studies

Wednesday Nov. 19: 6-8pm
3rd Annual Persian Food Night
Darla Moore School of Business, Cooper Pavilion (near the entrance)
Celebrating Iran’s rich history through food and performances. Open to the public with a small cost for food. Contact: Soisausc@mailbox.sc.edu for more details.
Cost: $7 (ticket purchase required in advance)
Sponsor: Iranian Student Association

Thursday Nov. 20: 12-2pm (Invitation Only)
International Bazaar at DJJ
Department of Juvenile Justice
DJJ students celebrate cultures from around the world with an international bazaar by EPI students.
Sponsor: English Programs for Internationals

Thursday Nov. 20: 5-6pm
Meet and Greet USC Exchange Students
Maxcy Dining Room
Learn about study abroad from the experts…our exchange students! If you’re going on a USC exchange or if you’re just interested in making new friends, join us in the Maxcy Dining Room to connect with our awesome international students.
Sponsor: Study Abroad

Thursday Nov. 20: 7:30-9:30pm
Around the World Trivia Night
Humanities Classroom 201
Test your international knowledge at our fun-filled trivia night! Grab your friends and get ready for some competition, because our trivia winners will get some awesome prizes! You’ll also have the chance to see the world as we view and announce the winning photo submissions from the IEW Photo Contest!
Sponsors: Study Abroad & International Student Services

Friday Nov. 21: 9-10:30am (Invitation Only)
Community Partners Breakfast
Maxcy Dining Room
Faculty and staff are invited to join the Study Abroad Office as we show our appreciation for all of our campus partners with a fabulous breakfast spread! This year we’re celebrating the departments and faculty members who are so instrumental in helping our students learn and grow abroad.
Sponsor: Study Abroad

Friday Nov. 21: 12-1:30pm
Columbia Council for Internationals (CCFI) Free Lunch
Maxcy Dining Room
The Columbia Council for Internationals hosts a free lunch every Friday for international students, faculty, and staff. You are invited to learn more about CCFI and mingle with international students.
Sponsors: Columbia Council for Internationals, English Programs for Internationals, Study Abroad, and International Student Services

Friday Nov. 21: 4-5pm (Invitation Only)

French Student Exchange

Darla Moore School of Business, Room 331

A “goûter” will be held for USC students from France and study abroad students who were on exchange in 2014 or going to France in 2015.

Sponsors: Darla Moore School of Business & French American Chamber of Commerce of the Carolinas