STUDENT LEADERSHIP AND DIVERSITY CONFERENCE
Leadership and Service Center & Office of Multicultural Student Affairs

PEER LEADER

The Student Leadership and Diversity Conference (SLDC) is an opportunity for students and staff from institutions across the Southeast to network and explore important issues in diversity and student leadership. With access to more than 30 educational sessions and keynote speakers, SLDC trains and educates participants in:

- Essential leadership skills for a diverse society
- Developing a leadership identity
- Creating initiatives and methods to foster sustainable positive change
- Maximizing their student leadership experience

The SLDC Planning Committee consists of professional staff representation from the Office of Multicultural Student Affairs and the Leadership and Service Center as well as two student Peer Leaders.

Responsibilities (To be shared with student co-director)

- Assist in the planning of SLDC.
- Serve as an SLDC Committee Member.
- Attend regular committee meetings.
- Work with a professional staff member to research keynote speaker options and create recommendations for the committee and other stakeholders to consider.
- Alongside a professional staff member or graduate assistant, coordinate conference logistics which could include food, giveaways, or other areas of need.
- Oversee student volunteer program through selection, volunteer training, and day of logistics.
- Create and implement a marketing plan to create awareness of the conference and lead to registrations of UofSC students.
- Represent the planning committee on the day of the conference through serving as an emcee and as a host to keynote speaker(s) and/or other university officials.
- Other duties as assigned.

Learning Outcomes
As a result of serving as an SLDC Student Coordinator, students will:
