In this scenario the salary non-exempt employee worked regularly scheduled hours on the university holiday 5/31/2021 for Memorial Day. The employee forgot to enter their time worked and the week has now passed. As the manager, you can enter time on behalf of employees in your area.

You can go back and enter timesheets 60 days prior to the current day on behalf of an employee.

Step 10: Be sure to select the correct timesheet for the work week. Use the Arrows to navigate to the appropriate timesheet.

Begin by selecting the appropriate Time Reporting Code (TRC).

You can only have one TRC per line.

Step 11: Click the Time Reporting Code drop-down arrow.

Step 12: Select REGHR – Regular Hours.
Step 13: Click in the Time Entry field and enter hours worked for each day. For this example, enter hours worked on May 31, the Memorial Day holiday for UofSC.
Step 14/Optional: Click the Comment icon to add additional information.

Step 15: Click the Submit button to submit the timesheet for approval.

Step 16: When you enter time on a holiday, a warning message will appear informing you that the reported date is a holiday. Click the OK button to save the reported time and return to the timesheet.
Step 17: Once the timesheet has been submitted correctly, you will see a message across the top of the screen saying that the timesheet has been submitted successfully. Also, an email is generated that will automatically be sent to the employee.
Step 18: Notice the time for each day is automatically approved at submission. When time is entered by a manager on behalf of an employee, additional approval is not required.
Step 19: When submitted, the Approved icon appears for the days’ time is entered indicating the timesheet is approved. Click the View Legend link to view the legends used and a short description of each one.

The most common icons that may appear in the Daily Status box are:

- 😱 The user has an exception that needs to be fixed before submitting the timesheet.
- 📋 The timesheet has been saved for later.
- 🔄 The time entered has been submitted and is pending approval.
- ✔️ The entered time has been approved.
