GPA:

Grade Point Average of 2.5 or greater required to enroll in independent study courses. (Dean should verify GPA before signing.)

Only students who take an independent study as part of their major, minor, or cognate may receive grade point credit for independent study.

Independent study credits applied toward any undergraduate degree may account for no more than 10% of the total credit hours for that degree. The total amount of independent study credit per term is limited to six hours.
