The university has established a documented process to determine which risks are most significant, identify controls and monitor risks. The adopted process is summarized as follows: