

Magellan Faculty Fellows

Supported by the Ann Johnson Institute (AJI) for Science, Technology & Society (STS)

Calling Magellan Scholar, Apprentice, & Mini-Grant Applicants!

- Does your project pair science/engineering/health sciences with the humanities or social sciences?
- Are you a faculty-student team from different disciplines?

Then "check the boxes" on your Magellan Application and Mentor Collaboration form to have the project mentor considered for the AJI Magellan Faculty Fellow award!

Faculty Fellows will receive $1,000 to be used for travel, materials, or supplies related to your project.
