“The Red Stick War in Florida: Rethinking Jackson, The Creek Nation, and the First Seminole War.”
By: Dr. Andrew Frank, Florida State University

This talk will unite the Creek Civil War (1813-1814) and the First Seminole War (1817-1818) into a single story of both Creek and US nation building. In particular, it will explore the uneasy alliance that connected Gen. Andrew Jackson and Creek chief William McIntosh and explain how this alliance impacted the Seminoles and other Indians in north Florida.

Please direct any questions or comments regarding the series to Brent Burgin at 803-313-7063 or wbburgin@sc.edu. Mr. Burgin welcomes suggestions and ideas for future talks and speakers.
