Questions about the FAFSA

• Am I Independent?:
  – Over 23 years old?
  – Veteran or on Active Duty?
  – Parents Deceased and not adopted?
  – Married?
  – Children or other dependents for whom you –the student- provide 50% of their support?
  – Foster youth, emancipated minor, in legal guardianship, or unaccompanied youth who are homeless.

• If “NO” to all of these, student is Dependent
  – Note: Living on one’s own doesn’t qualify a student as Independent.
Questions about the FAFSA

• I have a Legal Guardian, do I put my guardian’s information on the FAFSA?
  – No, you would be Independent
  – Court documentation must specifically site “Legal Guardian”.

• I am in Legal Custody, do I put my custodian’s information on the FAFSA?
  – No, you would need to request a Dependency Override by the school
Questions about the FAFSA

• What is a Dependency Override?
  – When a Financial Aid Officer approves of Special Circumstances that allows them to use Professional Judgment to make you Independent.

• What qualifies someone for a Dependency Override?
  – Abusive family situation; Mentally, Physically, Drug
  – One parent deceased the other cannot be found

Note: Parents’ refusal to file the FAFSA does not allow a Dependency Override. But, student may be able to borrow Unsubsidized Loans.
Questions about the FAFSA

• My parents live together, but aren’t married, who’s information do I put on the FAFSA?
  – Both parents’ information, if they live together

• My parents are Divorced, whose information do I use?
  – Custodial Parent and Step-Parent (if remarried)

• My grandparents/aunt/uncle/friend raised me but did not adopt me, can I put their information on the FAFSA?
  – No, you must have your parents info
  – If you can not reach your parents, put zeroes in their section
  – Ask for a “Dependency Override” from the school.
Does a Dependent Student need to File Taxes?

Yes, if...

◦ His total income is more than $6300
◦ His unearned income more than $1050

Can the student work and still be eligible for Financial Aid?

◦ Yes, up to $6420 a year is ignored
◦ Anything over that reduces your eligibility
Eligibility Information

Estimated Expected Family Contribution (EFC) = 801

The EFC is a measure of how much you can contribute to the cost of your education. Schools use your EFC to determine your federal student aid eligibility.

The EFC is not how much aid you will receive or how much you have to pay for college.
Based on the eligibility criteria, you may be eligible for the following:

Pell Grant Estimate - $4,925.00

Direct Stafford Loan Estimate - $5,500.00

You may also be eligible to receive other federal, state, or institutional grants, scholarships, and/or work-study.
Questions about the FAFSA

- What does the FAFSA tell me?
  - Expected Family Contribution (EFC)
  - Eligibility for Federal and State Grants
  - replaces a credit check for Federal Student Loans

- What is the EFC?
  - family contribution for the cost of living and paying for college

- What is the “Cost of Attendance”?
  - Estimate of ALL costs for 9 months

- How do you calculate the “Need”?
  - COA-EFC = NEED
  - limits “need based aid”
What Next?

• The FAFSA will be sent to the colleges you listed
  – They will receive an electronic copy within 3 days
  – Many schools download in January or later
  – You may be selected for Verification

• You will receive a Student Aid Report
  – By e-mail (secure link) or by mail (paper form)

• You may have other things to complete
  – College will communicate by letter OR E-mail
  – Complete these promptly!
Verification

• What is Verification?
  – A review and correction
  – randomly selected (1 in 3)
  – colleges will notify you
  – Each school will need to verify

• What will you need to do?
  – Complete, sign and return the “Verification Worksheet”;
  – Complete IRS data-retrieval (student and parent)
    OR provide a Federal IRS Tax Return Transcript
  – If parent didn’t file, need a “Verification of Non-filing Letter”
  – The college may require other documents (ie W-2s)
  – You must do this promptly

You may order a 2017 TAX RETURN TRANSCRIPT from the Internal Revenue Service online at www.irs.gov or by phone at 1-800-908-9946.
