General Information

Accreditation

Students may review copies of documents regarding entities that accredit, license, or approve the institution and its programs. The University of South Carolina is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award Associates, Baccalaureate, Masters, and Doctorate degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of the University of South Carolina. The Commission requests that it be contacted only if there is evidence that appears to support an institution's noncompliance with a requirement or standard. Accreditation information can be found at <http://www.ipr.sc.edu/sacs/> with the Office of Institutional Research, Assessment, and Analytics.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

In carrying out their assigned responsibilities, many offices at the University of South Carolina collect and maintain information about students. All records belong to the university, according to university policy and federal regulations, but students have many rights concerning these records. The Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act passed in 1974, outlines the governance of access to and disclosure of student records.

To fulfill FERPA requirements, the university has established Policies on Student Records. These policies indicate the information disclosed in directories, an explanation about parental access to student records, and a detailed description of student rights. The policies on student records are on the web at http://www.sc.edu/about/offices_and_divisions/registrar/transcripts_and_records/privacy/ferpa/index.php For more information or to receive a copy, contact the Office the University Registrar, 1244 Blossom St., Suite 106 Columbia, SC 29201 or by phone at 803-777-5555.

Because the university does not maintain all student records in one location, each office maintaining student records is required to develop a written statement of policies and procedures for handling student records. They are available in their respective offices. The university also has copies of university policies on student records on its website at <http://www.sc.edu/policies/policiesbysubject.php#R>.

College Navigator Information

The College Navigator website is part of the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES). They are responsible for collecting all kinds of education related data including that in the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS). You can visit the College Navigator and type the name of the institution to receive a variety of information. <https://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator/>

State Authorization

In 2010, the U.S. Department of Education issued the "Program Integrity Rules" requiring institutions of higher education to be authorized in states where they provide education in order to be eligible to receive federal financial assistance. While parts of these rules have been challenged and vacated, other rules remain in effect, including state authorization in individual states. Therefore, since federal and state regulations continue to evolve regarding state authorization, the University created a page in order to provide information to its current and prospective students regarding our authorization and licensure status. The authorization for the Palmetto College Campuses is included with the Columbia Campus. http://www.sc.edu/about/offices_and_divisions/provost/planning/academicprograms/state-authorization/

Copyright Infringement Policies

Information about the university's copyright policies can be found on the Copyright @USC website <http://www.sc.edu/copyright/>. It contains policies about the use of authorized distribution of copyright material, unauthorized downloading, and a summary of penalties for violation of federal copyright laws.

General Eligibility Requirements

The federal government is the primary source of financial aid for most college students. Also, the state of South Carolina offers scholarship and grants to state residents. Students must meet the following general requirements to be considered for federal/state aid.

http://www.sc.edu/about/system_and_campuses/palmetto_college/internal/financial_aid/eligibility/requirements/index.php

Determination of Aid Eligibility.

Financial aid programs were created with the idea that the primary responsibility for paying college costs rests with the student and family. Your aid eligibility depends on your family's financial circumstances and resources. Visit here to view how aid eligibility is determined:

http://www.sc.edu/about/system_and_campuses/palmetto_college/internal/financial_aid/eligibility/determination/index.php

Effect of Withdrawal on Eligibility

Students, please be advised that if you withdraw or drop from classes, it will affect your eligibility for financial aid grants and loans. You will be required to return/repay the dollar amount calculated as unearned aid.

Restrictions on Eligibility

For additional information on Restriction on Eligibility view here:

http://www.sc.edu/about/system_and_campuses/palmetto_college/internal/financial_aid/eligibility/restrictions/index.php

Types of Aid

There are many types of aid available to help make college more affordable: loans, work-study, scholarships and grants.

The type of aid you receive will depend on whether it is need-based (determined by your demonstrated financial need) or non-need-based (determined by merit or other factors). Detailed information on the types of aid can be viewed here:

http://www.sc.edu/about/system_and_campuses/palmetto_college/internal/financial_aid/types_of_aid/index.php

Student Loans, Entrance/Exit Counseling, & Repayment

Student loans, unlike grants and work-study, are borrowed money that must be repaid, with interest. Students find that they must borrow money to finance a portion of their education. Before you borrow, consider carefully how much you will need to borrow and the responsibilities of borrowing. See detailed information here:

http://www.sc.edu/about/system_and_campuses/palmetto_college/internal/financial_aid/types_of_aid/loans/index.php

Be alert to potential Scholarship Fraud

According to the Federal Trade Commission, perpetrators of financial aid fraud often use the following lines to sell their scholarship services; students should avoid any scholarship service or website that states one or all the following:

- “This scholarship is guaranteed or your money back.”
- “You can’t get this information anywhere else.”
- “I just need your credit card or bank account number to hold this scholarship.”
- “We’ll do all the work.”
- “This scholarship will cost some money.”
- “You’ve been selected by a ‘national foundation’ to receive a scholarship” or “You’re a finalist” in a contest you never entered.

The College Scholarship Fraud Prevention Act of 2000 was passed to protect against fraud in student financial aid by establishing stricter sentencing guidelines for criminal financial aid fraud. The U.S. Department of Education notes that there is no need for any student to pay for college preparation or financial aid advice. High school counselors, college financial aid administrators, and the Federal Student Aid Information Center all provide help for free. Visit <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/types/scams> for lists of fraud warning signs and free sources of aid information.

If you believe you’ve been a victim of scholarship fraud, call (877) FTC-HELP, visit the Federal Trade Commission: <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0082-scholarship-and-financial-aid-scams> or visit the U.S. Dept. of Education Office of the Inspector General website: <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/oig/misused/sscams.html>
