

Biographic Information

Research Interests

Topics: settlement ecology; landscapes; spatial analysis; economic, social, and political interaction; ethnohistory; demographic archaeology; GIS applications; and lithics

Cultural: Northeastern and Southeastern U.S.; 19th and early 20th-century farms and rural communities; 13th–18th century Haudenosaunee and Piedmont Siouan communities

Education

Degrees earned

2008	Ph.D. Anthropology, The Pennsylvania State University
2004	M.A. Anthropology, The Pennsylvania State University
2000	B.A. Anthropology, Hamilton College

Professional History

Academic Positions

2020–	Associate Professor	Anthropology	University of South Carolina
2018–2020	Associate Professor	Anthropology	Wake Forest University
2012–2018	Assistant Professor	Anthropology	Wake Forest University
2009–2012	Lecturer	Anthropology	Wake Forest University
2008–2009	Adjunct Professor	Sociology/Anthropology	SUNY, College of Cortland
2007–2008	Adjunct Professor	Anthropology	SUNY, University at Albany

Administrative Positions

Undergraduate Coordinator, Department of Anthropology, UofSC	2021–
Director, Cultural Heritage and Preservations Studies Program, WFU	2018–2020

Community Archaeology Partnerships and Public Archaeology Events

2019–	Settlement Ecology of Early Rural America/Fenner History Collaboration
2019–21	David Allen Forge Project/Elkin and Jonesville community partnership
2019	Participant in North Carolina Trail Days public education
2013–18	Open site tours and annual public archaeology day at the Redtail site
2013	Public archaeology day for Farmington (NC) Community Center
2003	Volunteer for the Oneida Nation Youth Work/Learn Project, Oneida, NY

Archaeological Consulting

2015	Mohawk Council of Kahnawake
------	-----------------------------

Cultural Resource Management Positions

2006–2007	Education Specialist	New York State Museum
2002	Crew Chief	Public Archaeology Facility

Mentored Undergraduate Research

49 individual student projects

Over $38,000 in fellowship funding

2021 Magellan Fellowship application for undergraduate summer research
- $2750 to conduct GIS-based spatial analyses and archival research of 19th century farms in Fenner, NY

2021 Hired two students with research funds as field and lab research assistants
- Examining the relationship between women's labor and farm commercialization in 19th century Fenner, NY
- Examining the impact of participation in the Civil War on farm production in Fenner, NY

2020 Hired work-study student as GIS research assistant
- Digitized historic maps into ArcGIS and conducted spatial analysis of data

2019 Directed a Wake Forest Summer Research Fellow
- $4000 to examine lithic assemblages and conducted projectile point replication to understand how triangular points were constructed
- Work presented at Wake Forest Undergraduate Research Day
- Work presented at Southeastern Archaeological Conference

2019 Worked with five students to spatially analyze 1875 farm locations in upstate NY
- Created a digital database of farms from an 1869 business listing
- Digitized an 1875 property map and cross-listed with the 1869 business listing
- Spatial analyzed farm locations to determine factors behind settlement patterns

2018 Mentored three students on lithic analysis
- Measured 7 attributes of triangular projectile points and conducted statistical analyses
- Matthew Capps presented the work at Wake Forest Undergraduate Research Day and the Southeastern Archaeological Conference Meetings

2018 Hired two students as laboratory assistants
- One conducted measurements of lithic projectile point measurements
- One conducted research on an 1875 business listing

2018 Hired a 2017 graduate as a research assistant on NSF grant (BCS-1430945) and fieldschool teaching assistant
- Conducted excavation, prepared site files, and taught students field methods

2017 Hired two students as laboratory assistants
- Gathered site data for two spatial analysis projects; one began creating a GIS database of sites

2017 Hired a student as a research assistants on NSF grant (BCS-1430945)
- Analyzed artifacts to characterize economic exchange patterns

2017 Hired three students as archaeology field researchers on NSF grant (BCS-1430945)

- Conducted excavation, washed and catalogued artifacts, separated small fraction remains, and conducted lithic and ceramic analysis
- 2017 Hired two students to classify small-fraction artifacts and ecofacts
- 2017 Directed two Wake Forest Summer Research Fellows
 - $4000 to examine the number of households at the Redtail site (31Yd173)
 - $4000 to create a model for household numbers from surface site size density
 - Both projects presented at the Southeastern Archaeological Conference Meetings
- 2016 Hired two students as research assistants on NSF grant (BCS-1430945)
 - Collected spatial and landscape data for these sites in GIS
- 2016 Hired three students as archaeology field researchers on NSF grant (BCS-1430945)
 - Conducted excavation, washed and catalogued artifacts, separated small fraction remains, and conducted lithic and ceramic analysis
- 2015 Directed Wake Forest Summer Research Fellow
 - $4000 to search for Housefloors at the Redtail site (31Yd173)
 - Work presented at Wake Forest Undergraduate Research Day
 - Work presented at 2015 Southeastern Archaeological Conference Meetings
- 2015 Hired two students as research assistants on NSF grant (BCS-1430945)
 - Created a GIS database of 200+ archaeological sites and gathered landscape data from governmental agencies
- 2015 Hired four students as archaeology field researchers on NSF grant (BCS-1430945)
 - Conducted excavation, washed and catalogued artifacts, separated small fraction remains, and conducted lithic and ceramic analysis
 - Work presented at 2015 Southeastern Archaeological Conference Meetings
- 2014 Hired two students as research assistants on NSF grant (BCS-1430945)
 - Collected site location data and archaeological information for 200+ Mississippian sites across the Southeast
- 2014 Directed Wake Forest Summer Research Fellow
 - $4000 to excavate and map postmolds to identify 13th-century house dimensions
 - Work presented at Wake Forest Undergraduate Research Day
 - Work presented at Southeastern Archaeological Conference Meetings
- 2014 Mentored a student research project for credit
 - Classified a lithic assemblage from two Archaic sites in Anson Co., NC
 - Work presented at Wake Forest Undergraduate Research Day
- 2013 Directed Wake Forest Summer Research Fellow
 - $4000 to examine settlement and subsistence at the Redtail site (31Yd173)
 - Work presented at Wake Forest Undergraduate Research Day
 - Work presented at Society for American Archaeology Meetings
- 2013 Mentored student ceramic analysis
 - Examination of Pottery Construction Techniques at Late Woodland Sites in the North Carolina Piedmont
 - Work presented at Undergraduate Research Day
 - Work was featured in the Wake Will fundraising campaign
- 2012 Directed Wake Forest Summer Research Fellow
 - $4000 to model past environments in the North Carolina Piedmont
 - Work presented at Wake Forest Undergraduate Research Day
 - Work presented at Southeastern Archaeological Conference Meetings
- 2011 Directed Wake Forest Summer Research Fellow
 - $4000 to examine the relationship between settlement size and environmental setting in the North Carolina Piedmont
 - Work presented at Wake Forest Undergraduate Research Day

- Work presented at Southeastern Archaeological Conference Meetings
- 2010 Directed Wake Forest Summer Research Fellow
- $4000 to study the settlement ecology of the upper Yadkin River Valley
 - Work presented at Wake Forest Undergraduate Research Day
 - Work presented at Southeastern Archaeological Conference Meetings

Directed Independent Study and Internships

- 2021 Independent study on the relationship between professional archaeology and collecting
- 2020 Internship on Hidden Towns Project at Old Salem, NC
- 2019 Independent study on paleoethnobotany in Southeastern archaeology
- 2019 GIS and Spatial Analysis (2 students)
- 2019 Internship on Hidden Towns Project at Old Salem, NC
- 2019 Internship on Hidden Towns Project at Old Salem, NC
- 2018 Internship on Hidden Towns Project at Old Salem, NC
- 2017 Internship in Historic Archaeology at Old Salem, NC
- 2016 Independent study on archaeology during Political Conflict
- 2014 Independent study on environmental Archaeology of the Southeast
