RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Honors Intern, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D.C.
Wilmington Resident Agency – Safe Streets/Violent Crimes Task Force
September 2016-May 2018

- Assisted with ongoing investigations and cold case investigations, including reviewing evidence, gathering identifying information for known subjects and identifying unknown subjects using available databases
- Geocoded addresses and generated maps and timelines of location-based data
- Conducted cellular analysis of toll and subscriber records
- Assisted with gathering data for a local drug market initiative conducted by the U.S. Attorney’s office
- Generated reports and statistics on activities completed by different violent crime squads in the Baltimore division, including summaries of cases and statistics on accomplishments, such as arrests or indictments

Office of Partner Engagement, Violence Prevention Section
June 2015-August 2016

- Identified 2015 and 2016 active shooter incidents and compiled statistics and one page reports on topics of interest, such as the resolution of the incident
- Interviewed police officers and reviewed existing research to better understand best practices for law enforcement working in schools
- Developed a brochure on law enforcement in schools to be released to local law enforcement across the country and co-wrote two FBI Law Enforcement Bulletins on the same topic
- Collaborated with officials at other federal agencies, including the Department of Education
- Wrote a white paper on policing in a post-Ferguson era that was presented to OPE executives and used in a meeting with OPE officials and major cities Chiefs of Police

Research Assistant, Center for Drug and Health Studies, Newark, DE
August 2016-May 2017

- Compiled statistics on publications, presentations, grant awards and proposals, and additional collaborations for recipients of the DE-CTR ACCEL grant
- Attended strategic planning meetings and assisted with compiling data, presentation materials, and tables for a 5-year continuing renewal grant application

ASHLEY M. MANCIK
mancik@mailbox.sc.edu
(919) 280-5536

- Identified overlapping themes and priorities based on a comparison of community needs assessments from several organizations throughout the state of Delaware
- Helped gather resources, attend meetings, and draft a report on the opiate problem in Delaware that was presented to New Castle County Executive Matt Meyer

Homicide Researcher, *Center for Homicide Research, Minneapolis, MN
May 2013-July 2013

- Worked with a team of eleven researchers to identify the origin of a 1960s homicide “cluster” in a specific North Minneapolis neighborhood
- Selected out the first 12 cases for advanced qualitative analysis, including designing interview questions and an interview plan for future researchers to carry out further investigation
- Gathered data from secondary sources, including death records and news articles, to learn more about the history of the neighborhood and homicides that occurred during our period of study
- Conducted reviews of the relevant literature and presented pertinent findings during daily briefings
