

Engaging Locally & Transnationally with SC Centro Latino through the Multilingual Public Humanities

THURSDAY

January

26

4:00 pm

GAMBRELL HALL

ROOM 429

We invite you to learn first-hand about South Carolina Centro Latino (El Centro), its creation during the pandemic, and impact in the community. Explore the role of public-facing work to bridge new audiences as we collaborate to elevate Hispanic and Latino talent within and beyond higher education. Discover how you can engage with El Centro through any of its three pillars, Latinx Interdisciplinary Studies & Civic Leadership, the Multilingual Public Humanities, and Translation & Community Interpreting.

For Info contact: Jorge Camacho

CAMACHOJ@mailbox.sc.edu

Director, Latin American, Caribbean and US
Latinx Studies Program

Dr. Araceli Hernandez-Laroche
Director of South Carolina Centro Latino, Professor of Modern Languages and Coordinator of French Global Studies at USC Upstate