INTRODUCTION TO WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES

This unique Service-Learning course emphasizes the importance of active learning both in the classroom and in the community through individualized placements in local social advocacy organizations. Students will enhance their values of civic responsibility and community collaboration through service opportunities that address gendered social issues such as domestic violence, sexual assault, reproductive rights, and homelessness.

Students will gain hands-on experience and develop their professional skills through their partner site service.

This class will provide students with a sense of international, multicultural community caring through the lens of the Carolina and Columbia community as they relate to current events locally, nationally, and globally. This course requires students to work at a chosen partner site for thirty (30) hours outside of class.

Requires Honors College permission
