The Master of Education (M.Ed.) in Teaching is for classroom teachers and others working in educational settings who wish to continue their professional development and advance their career through graduate education.

Choose from one of these high-demand specializations and be equipped with the knowledge and professional skills you need to stand out as a leader in the classroom.

LITERACY AND READING
Explore research-based practices and inquiry-learning designed to meet the literacy needs of today's diverse learners. Meets the SC Read to Succeed course requirements for in-service teachers.

PROJECT-BASED LEARNING
Examine teaching methodology designed to enable learners to gain knowledge and skills while investigating and responding to an authentic, engaging and complex question, problem, or challenge. This specialization meets course requirements for the SC Project Based Learning endorsement.

MULTICULTURAL CONTEXTS IN EDUCATION
Explore instructional strategies and classroom environments to support learners from diverse backgrounds. Research influences of diversity on instruction and curriculum with emphasis on teaching strategies and programs for multicultural student populations.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS
- 100% online degree program
- 30 credit hours
- Complete in as few as 18 months
- Design your own research topic

GRE/Miller Analogies test not required if you have three years of experience in an education setting or a GPA of 3.0 or higher in the last degree you earned.

TOP 10 PROGRAM NATIONALLY
Ranked as the #6 online Master's in K-12 Education programs in the nation by BestColleges.

Learn more: sc.edu/education/onlineprograms