The Graduate Council met on Monday, August 27, 2007 at 2:30p.m. in room 311 of the Byrnes Building with Dr. Jim Buggy presiding.

Graduate Council members present: Dr. Naomi Farber, Chair; Xiaomin Deng, Louise Jennings*, Gregory Hand, Scott Huebner, Zach Kelehear, Barry Markovsky, Andrew Shifflet (represented by William Rivers), Oggie Trifonov, George Voulgaris, and Lynn Zoch

Graduate Council members absent: Marianne Bickle, Louise Charlebois (resigned), Lucia Pirisi-Creek*, Irma Van Scoy

Graduate School Representatives: Dr. Jim Buggy, Stan Dubinsky, Dale Moore, Lynn Jackson

Provost Office Representative: Dr. Aileen Trainer

NOTE: These minutes will become final on October 8, 2007, if not challenged.

1. Chair's remarks (Naomi Farber)
   Dr. Buggy called the meeting to order and introduced Dr. Farber as the new chair. She spoke of the GC’s mission and emphasized its very significant role in faculty governance. Graduate Council committees make a very important contribution to council by deliberating on issues brought before council; council members were encouraged to volunteer for committees of most interest to them. The election of the vice chair was postponed until the next meeting.
2. Approval of minutes (Minutes of the May 29, 2007 meeting were approved by email) [Attachments on file in Graduate Council Office]

3. Report of the Graduate Dean (Jim Buggy)
   Informed the council he was named Interim Dean of the Graduate School 7/1/07 with a likely 1-2 year term until appointment of a new Dean.

   • Introduction of new Council members: Scott Huebner, Xiaomin Deng, Lynn Zoch, and Andrew Shifflet. Dr. Buggy indicated that graduate faculty from under-represented units are being sought to fill appointed vacancies on Graduate Council.

   • Dr. Buggy stated that Graduate Council meeting room should have a networked computer and projector always available for the meetings. The revised Graduate Council webpage was reviewed to demonstrate features that would better inform council and the wider university community.

   o Review of Graduate Council Manual
   o 2007-2008 meeting dates - 2nd & 4th Monday of each month.
   o Agendas will be posted on the website prior to each meeting to enable others to know what the council is doing.
   o The Graduate Curriculum Proposal Tracking Chart with scanned proposals and review status was described. By placing this information on the web rather than as an attachment to mailed agendas, there should be better awareness of curricular matters throughout the university. Also, Council was encouraged to efficiently process Curriculum Committee reports to allow more meeting time for other matters.

   • The distinction of ‘graduate faculty’ was reviewed based on the definition in the Faculty Manual. Each graduate program has established criteria for graduate faculty. The primary responsibility for graduate faculty is to teach graduate classes and supervise graduate students by serving on advisory committees.

   • Standing Committees - Should be chaired by council members but other membership need not be council members. There are seven committees listed in the Graduate Council manual and Dr. Buggy would like more of these to be active this upcoming year. Charges to standing committees and the organization of council meetings was discussed.

   o Dr. Dubinsky will organize the Fellowships Committee and demonstrated the newly designed Fellowships and Awards webpage and how this should be more informative.
   o The Curricular Committees were charged to develop review criteria for their activities, and provide a template for the necessary components of a graduate course syllabus. Dr. Trainer noted the need for step by step procedure. At this time there are no clear academic policies for some of these procedures.
   o The Petitions and Appeals Committee will be charged with review of probation/suspension practices. Guidelines for appeals in these areas and Academic Forgiveness were developed but not widely known; these have now been added to the graduate school website. Clarification of the timing of probation and suspension is requested for students receiving incomplete “I” grades which then convert to “F” after one year.
The Policies and Procedures Committee will be asked to assess dissertation and thesis guidelines. A title page template revised by Dr. Dubinsky was demonstrated from the website. Another charge is to determine if there should be uniform admission standards used by the Graduate School. Dale Moore provided background on this practice and noted that there is a published minimum for the TOEFL but not GPA or standardized test scores such as GRE. A review of Graduate School Admission coordinators revealed a variety of standards applied to different programs regarding when letters of justification are requested to support admission recommendations.

The Program Review Committee will be asked to assist degree programs with Graduate Bulletin and website revision in preparation for the 2011 SACS reaccreditation process.

- The search for a new Assistant Dean and an Administrative Coordinator are in progress and these positions will provide support for Graduate Council among other responsibilities.

Lynn Zoch asked about notification of website changes … noting that it is much more user friendly. Jim Buggy will announce the changes once we have reached a point where many of the changes have been implemented. Notification was suggested to faculty, in addition to grad dirs, chairs, and admin support staff.

1. Chair's remarks (Naomi Farber)

No specific remarks. Preferring to leave time for proposal at end of agenda.
Approval of minutes (Minutes of the September 24, 2007 meeting)

Should read “with Dr. Naomi Farber presiding”. Approved by acclamation.

2. Report of the Graduate Dean (Jim Buggy)

Introduced and welcomed new GC member, Lucia Pirisi-Creek, Professor of Pathology and Microbiology. Dr. Pirisi-Creek spoke briefly about her current roles at USC.

Last week had two thesis/dissertation workshops by coordinators. First was imperfect, second went better. Discussion of online title page form was had. Naomi Farber noted that her students found the workshops to be helpful.

Theresa Smith has been hired as a new GS staff coordinator for coordination of GC matters.

In August, President’s office and Board of Trustees made inquiries about the status of graduate applications. In both instances, the students had applied significantly after the deadlines. In looking into the cases, in each case it was difficult for the program to know that they had applied … they were never “evaluated”.

Provost’s office inquired after an 11% decline in masters enrollments. IAC does not have data yet, which might allow a more detailed assessment of facts.

Following week, IPS asked about a 13% decline in International enrollments.

Then, Dean of Public Health informed the GS about a Clemson initiative that will support 60 new doctoral students at 12-15K/year to be matched by units. This will be a program that will offer 3-year awards and will continue for at least 3 years. Also includes a $1000 health insurance subsidy. Total of $7.25 million in support. (handout distributed) This was compared to our current USC Grad School support for various types of student support (travel, recruiting, minority recruiting, awards, etc) that totals about $560,000 (handout distributed).

(Aileen Trainer noted that the money for Clemson program comes (in part) from Public Service funds that are restricted to land grant universities.)

Graduate applications come through GS to programs, which then determine admissions and support (as is appropriate). As a consequence, we don’t have a comprehensive recruiting strategy at the university.

One instance: who would represent the university in Libya this fall for the new Gaddafi Foundation Fellowship Program? Various programs in CAS and Engineering wished to be represented, and each put in funds to represent the university there.
There is not a dedicated budget or staff in the GS for comprehensive recruiting strategy and effort. Dean Buggy plans to address this issue with the Council of Academic Deans. Another issue is our current application process, which involves our on-line application. Our system is now fairly outdated and not adequately supported. There are many shortcomings in this system. Possible improvements would be the OneCarolina system, but that is several years away. Also possible is a Datacube, which UTS can help bring on-line in another year. Another possibility is another independent software package which could be brought in earlier. Programs that create a recruiting database on their own can get a handle on this, but there is no university-wide help for it.

For recruiting to be effective, the programs must be involved. It would aid them if the information were predigested and easily available. (Lyn Zoch suggests that “having things in one place” would make a difference.) Dean Buggy would like to get input from GC members on how to do more effective recruiting.

Xiaomin Deng: It is important for the university to project a positive image. But the most important factor is personal recruiting by the units.

Irma VanScoy: The availability of funds is an important factor in getting good applicants to come.

Jim Buggy: What is the proper balance between doctoral and masters education? If research office’s focus on doctoral education eliminates support for master’s education, then the revenue-generating potential of masters programs may be lost.

Lucia Pirisi-Creek: Biomedical doesn’t have the funds to recruit broadly and must focus on specific areas.

Lynn Zoch: Mass Communication would like to be able to participate in broader recruiting efforts, since they lack the staff to do so.

Aileen Trainer: Doesn’t see efforts in enrollment management in the university. It is important to determine where the university wishes to see growth occur.

Jim Buggy: Hard to favor one program over another at this university. The GC Program Review committee might, in addition to other things, help to find out each unit’s enrollment goals. Another goal will be to be able to manage the applications that we have through the new CRM programs … will hopefully be in place by January.
JoAnne Herman: Marketing (of graduate programs) is a specialized task that needs specialized skills. No one unit will have enough money to support it. The name “USC” needs to mean something vis-à-vis graduate programs, and not just “football”.

Aileen Trainer: EGC is the only unit that has any budget for marketing, and then only $70,000.

Jim Buggy: At some point, the university must understand that it can’t be all things to all people, and determine (recruiting-wise) where it wishes to go. A program’s webpage should be usable. The Program Review committee should be looking at this.

Bill Rivers: Need to consider websites with multiple audiences (students, faculty, etc).

1. Proposal to change Graduate Council Manual from:

“B. MEETING SCHEDULE

To

“B. MEETING SCHEDULE
Graduate Council meetings are scheduled once every month during the academic year (the second Monday of the month at 2:30pm), and special meetings can be called by the Chair or upon the request of any three members…”

Discussion was had over the advantages and disadvantages of this proposal. Jim Buggy suggested that he was in favor of any change that would result in more substantive work by subcommittees. Irma VanScoy noted that the second monthly meeting slot should still be reserved for needed meetings, so that people will have it on their calendars. The parenthetical part of the proposal was revised by friendly amendment, so that the revised proposal reads:

“B. MEETING SCHEDULE
Graduate Council meetings are scheduled once every month during the academic year (typically the second Monday in each month at 2:30pm, and exceptionally on the fourth Monday of the month), and special meetings can be called by the Chair or upon the request of any three members…”

Seconds by Oggie Trifonov and William Rivers.
Approved unanimously.

The 2007 Outstanding Thesis Award Winner announced on The Graduate School website.

The Graduate School Fellowships and Incentive (for Minority recruiting) will be announced soon.

Proposed clarification of criteria for nomination submissions was discussed. Specific information highlighting Scores, Transcripts, GPA and Recommendations should be included in a nominee submission for review by the Fellowship Committee.

A standardization change to course forms is ongoing. Specifically to Curricular Change forms, New Course Proposal Forms and Special Topics Forms.

The Bachelors/Masters Plan and the Senior Privilege form were also revised.

4. Report of the Humanities, Social Sciences, Education, and Related Professional Programs Committee (Zach Kelehear)

Professor Kelehear reported on a course proposal up for consideration:

      Professor Dubinsky recommended revisions to the Curriculum Review timetable. After discussion by the committee, several revisions were adopted. A copy of the revised timetable is attached.

   b. Discussion of Curriculum Proposal Review Criteria (Stan Dubinsky)

      Professor Dubinsky noted that implementation of standardized Curriculum Proposal Review Criteria is needed for the New Course and Course Change Proposal forms. Professor Zoch mentioned that standardization had already been done in the past. Professor Dubinsky noted that campus-wide standardization may be implemented soon and that revision of criteria will need to be made in the context of these proposed changes.

      Professor Deng noted that the term DESIGNATOR on these forms (such as shown in #1 on the New Course Proposal form) should be changed to SCHOOL or DEPARTMENT for clarification purposes. He recommended that this issue be considered by the Policy and Practices Committee.

Graduate Council normally meets once a month during the regular academic terms, typically on the second Monday of each month. The exceptions to this are August and January, when the meeting is normally be held on the fourth Monday of the month. The nine regularly scheduled meeting dates for Graduate Council are thus: August (4th Monday), September (2nd Monday), October (2nd Monday), November (2nd Monday), December (2nd Monday), January (4th Monday), February (2nd Monday), March (2nd Monday), and April (2nd Monday). One additional meeting is normally scheduled in May or June.

For consideration by Graduate Council (GC) its monthly meeting in Month B, a proposal should be received (complete) at the Graduate School by 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday following the GC meeting in Month A, so that it can be posted to the Graduate Curriculum Proposal Tracking Chart http://www.gradschool.sc.edu/gradcouncil/Curricula/curricula.php on Friday at the end of that week and considered by the appropriate curriculum committee on the Monday one week after the GC meeting. Once the curriculum committee has considered the proposal, it will either be approved or sent back for revisions. If revisions are requested and made within two weeks of the curriculum committee meeting, the proposal will be placed on the GC meeting agenda on the Tuesday before the GC meeting in Month B. For example, the submission deadline following the October 8 Grad Council meeting is Wednesday, October 10, and the submission deadline for the November 12 Grad Council meeting is Wednesday, November 14.

Teresa Smith (GS administrative coordinator, Smith1@gwm.sc.edu) receives and scans (if needed) all proposals. Mark Liberatore (GS network manager, liberatd@gwm.sc.edu) places these on the website and notifies the committee chairs of their presence. Curriculum committee chairs notify their committee members and manage the approval process by the committee through meetings and/or electronically. Decisions of the curricular committees are communicated by the chairs of the curriculum committees to Teresa Smith (for placement on the agenda) or to the curriculum proposal contact person of the relevant department (if revisions are required). Revised proposals should be transmitted to Teresa Smith, so that they can be updated on the Graduate Curriculum Proposal Tracking Chart and archived in GC records.
The Graduate Council met on Monday, November 12, 2007 at 2:30 p.m. in Room 311 of the Byrnes Building with Dr. Naomi Faber presiding.

Graduate Council members present: Dr. NaomiFarber, Chair; Drs. Marianne Bickle, James Buggy, Xiaomin Deng, Stan Dubinsky, Gregory Hand, JoAnne Herman, Satish Jayachandran, Louise Jennings (for Josh Gold), Zach Kelehear, Barry Markovsky, Lucia Pirisi-Creek, William Rivers (for Andrew Shifflet), James Sweigart, Ognian Trifonov, Irma Van Scoy, George Voulgaris, Mike Wyatt and Lynn Zoch

Graduate Council members absent: Scott Huebner

Graduate School Representative: James Buggy and Teresa Smith

Provost Office Representative: Aileen Trainer (Absent)

No Report.

NOTE: These minutes will become final on December 10, 2007, if not challenged.

1. Chair's remarks (Naomi Farber)

The meeting was called to order.

Specific remarks:
For the next meeting, the Council should consider offering health insurance to Graduate Students. This was a recommendation presented by Chris Ebert when she was Dean of the Graduate School.

2. Approval of minutes (Minutes of the October 8, 2007 )

Minutes of 10/8/2007 were approved by acclamation.

3. Report of the Graduate Dean (Jim Buggy)

Professor Buggy welcomed the new Graduate Council members.

A committee formed by the Provost’s Office will review the role of the Graduate School. It is plausible that this committee may find that the Graduate School should be more research-based, should offer (or enhance) stipends, should provide Graduate Housing, or should develop a Graduate Student Center. Dr. Buggy will encourage interaction between the Provost’s Committee and the Graduate School staff. The Graduate School will present the committee’s findings to the Graduate Council when the committee’s work is completed and discuss how to proceed.

Professor Buggy presented an overview of the EMAS Recruiting System. He indicated that this application will centralize and improve the recruitment process. Two representatives from the EMAS vendor will visit The Graduate School between on November 19th and 21st to present details about the software and its use.

Professor Buggy also reported on his travel to recruit students from the Washington, DC area. While there, he also met with representatives from the New York Embassy and an International Funding Agency.

Professor Buggy reported on other recruiting activities of the Graduate School. Dale Moore recently traveled to Thailand to recruit graduate students for USC. Dale Moore also made a recruiting trip to Libya with George Voulgaris. George reports that 4000 students a year are given funding from the Khadafy Foundation and the Minister of Education to attend Colleges and Universities worldwide. USC was the only American University at the event.

Professor Kelehean presented a course change proposal for ARTE 705.
College of Arts & Science
Department of Art Education
Course Change Proposal:
FROM: ARTE 705 Program Development in Art (3)
Strategies that promote the infusion of interactive computer technologies (hypermedia) into the curricular designs of public school art programs.

To: ARTE 705 Program Development in Art (3) Comprehensive studies of curriculum designs and methods, methods and technologies from modernist to postmodernist assumptions in elementary and high school art education programs.
[Prereq: N/A]
[Restricted to: None]
[Effective: Spring 2008]

This course was voted on and approved by the committee.

Professor Ognian reported on a new interdisciplinary program proposal, Certificate of Graduate Study in Health Communication, submitted jointly by: the Department of Health Promotion, Education, & Behavior, the School of Journalism & Mass Communications, and the School of Library & Information Science.

Professor Van Scoy asked that verbiage on page 12 be changed. Professor Zoch noted a similar wording issue on page 14. Professor Ognian stated that the subcommittee will make the recommended changes, and with those provisions, the Certificate was voted on and approved by Graduate Council. This one sentence change on both pages 12 and 14 are to read “Qualified individuals can take the certificate as a stand alone program or in conjunction with another degree.”

6. Report of the Petitions and Appeals Committee (JoAnne Herman)

Professor Herman reported an editorial error in the course number of new course proposal NURS 504, which had been voted on and approved at the October 8, 2007 meeting. It should be renumbered NURS 505.

7. Report of the 500/600 Level Courses Committee (Jim Buggy)
Professor Buggy approved the editorial correction the new course NURS 504 to NURS 505.

8. Other Committee Reports

Issues of enrollment were discussed in both meeting. Professor Buggy presented informative USC enrollment statistics to the Council. These statistics can be found at the USC Institutional Assessment and Compliance website.

4. Report of the Petitions and Appeals Committee (JoAnne Herman)

The cases of two students were considered by the Council.

The first case considered by the Council was a student’s appeal to be given a “W” in lieu of a failing grade. After discussion by the Council, it was determined that the Petitions and Appeals Committee will review this case again due to receipt of additional information. The case was tabled by the Council until January 28th.

The second appeal was to waive revalidation of courses after a 10 year absence from the University. The Council questioned whether the student only wanted coursework validated and if the student wanted all fees waived. The Chair of the Council advised that the department should follow existing procedures for revalidation. Council approved Chair’s recommendation.

g. Curriculum and Bulletin Changes
Master of Arts in Teaching in Early Childhood
College of Education
Department of Instruction & Teacher Education

[See following pages]
Early Childhood and Elementary Education (MAT)

The MAT degrees in early childhood education and elementary education offer two options. One option is the five-year undergraduate/graduate program, designed only for USC Columbia students who have completed their baccalaureate degree, including the 18-hour education minor and additional required courses. This option is not available to anyone entering the University after September 1, 2003. The second option is the 15 month MAT program designed for career-changers—those persons deciding to become teachers after graduation from college in an area other than education. These persons may or may not have taken any education courses as an undergraduate.

Students in either MAT track must complete the following requirements:

Teaching Area Courses: EDTE 771 and 733; either EDEC 754 or EDEL 743; and either EDEC 755 or EDEL 744

Professional Education Courses: EDEL 709, EDPY 705, EDTE 600 and EDFN 749 (Fifth-year students may be able to replace certain professional educations with electives provided they have grades of “B” or better in the undergraduate education minor courses and the approval of the graduate advisor.)

Internship and Seminar: Either EDEC 769A, B, C and EDEC 770 or EDEL 790A, B, C and EDEL 791

Electives: 9 hours of course work outside of early childhood or elementary education are required.

Proposed: (deletions as strikethroughs, insertions as underlined)

Instruction and Teacher Education: Since the implementation of a new undergraduate BA program in Early Childhood Education in 2003, there has been a significant decline in interest and enrollment in the early childhood option of the MAT certification program. Changes in accreditation requirements would require major revision to the program.

1. Chair’s remarks (Professor Farber)

Dr. Farber called the meeting to order. Dr. Buggy introduced Dr. Nancy Zimmerman as the new Assistant Dean for the Graduate School, and suggested that all members introduce themselves.
2. Approval of minutes (Minutes of the December 10, 2007 meeting). The Graduate Council approved the minutes, with the suggestion to add the word “approved” to each approved curricular item going forward. [A copy of these Minutes are on file at The Graduate School; also posted on The Graduate School website at http://www.gradschool.sc.edu/gradcouncil/index.html]

3. Report of the Graduate Dean (Dean Buggy)

   Dr. Buggy mentioned the new projection system installed in the Council Meeting room and presented new features accessible on the Graduate School website. The features included dissertation defense announcements, revised academic standards, student mentoring tools and program director resources. Drs. Dubinsky and Zimmerman are continuing work on this project. Dr. Buggy recommended that Council members review the website respond with any suggestions. He also mentioned that programs may want to link this site to their webpages.

   Dr. Buggy reported on his attendance at the Council of Academic Deans where he gave a presentation showing doctoral enrollment statistics and levels of support for graduate study at USC. The presentation compared USC with Clemson in this regard. The report revealed that Graduate Student housing, stipends and health insurance are the most important factors determining a student’s choice to enroll in a university.

   Professor Gold suggested that a common space for dissertation defense presentations is needed. Dr. Dubinsky mentioned that Russell house has rooms on the 2nd and 3rd floors that are often available for student meetings and presentations. He suggested that all departments try to avail themselves of this space.

4. Report of the Petitions and Appeals Committee (Professor Herman)

   Professor Herman reported that Dr. Zimmerman was recently appointed to the Petitions and Appeals Sub-committee.

   Professor Herman called the committee into ‘Executive Session’ and presented the case of a student from the Computer Science & Engineering department requesting a grade change from “F” to “W”. After questions and discussion, the Council approved changing the student’s record to reflect a “W for extenuating circumstances”.

5. Report of the Humanities, Social Sciences, Education, and Related Professional Programs Committee (Professor Kelehear)

8. Report of the Fellowships Committee (Professor Pirisi-Creek)

   The sub-committee’s first meeting will be February 4.

9. Report of the Program Review Committee (Professor Bickle)

    Dr. Bickle gave an updated report on Graduate School websites reviewed by the committee. She presented a list of suggested standards/requirements for each program to follow when enhancing their website. The list was discussed by Council. Professor Dubinsky suggested that degree requirements with timetables to graduation and mentoring tools for students be added to the list. He also suggested that information about alumni, a listing of activities including noted speakers, and tools to attract prospective professors and staff be included. He also pointed out that each department should separately manage the content and technological features of their web-presence to produce the best websites.

    Drs. Bickle and Dubinsky recommended that Council members provide feedback and additional recommendations to include on the website standardization list.

10. Report of Academic Policy and Practices Committee (Professor Farber)

    Dr. Farber presented the following Policies & Practices proposal regarding applicants to the Graduate School.

    “Graduate Directors receive direction from the Graduate School that they must submit an action recommendation to the Graduate School for all applicants by the beginning of the term for which the applicant has applied. If an applicant is declined, the Graduate Director or appropriate program representative may provide additional information to the applicant regarding potential for admission in the future. However, the decline action recommendation must be filed and the applicant sent a letter from the Graduate School indicating this official action. The Committee further recommends that the Graduate School send a copy of the decline letter template to the Graduate Director’s and complete detailed information regarding monetary charges to students incurred for re-application and the circumstances for which those charges apply.”

The Graduate Council agreed with the proposal.

Dr. Shifflet mentioned that this item should be added to the Graduate Director’s Manual.

11. Other Committee Reports

Dr. Buggy mentioned that the Graduate School is working with UTS regarding data importation in an effort to implement the EMAS Graduate and Undergraduate enrollment processing/management system.

Dr. Trainer mentioned that the Program Bulletin Committee plans to eliminate print bulletins. Bulletins will be web-based only. A University of Virginia model is being used to develop the template to be used at USC. Each program will be given the new draft template soon and in May each unit will be asked to present feedback. A roll-out of the new web-based bulletins is planned for 2009.

Dr. Bickle and Dr. Zimmerman are working on this project.

13. New Business

Healthcare for Graduate Students: Graduate Student Association Vice President Stephen Mann presented to the Council the GSA’s position regarding the Graduate Student Insurance Subsidy. The GSA wants the subsidy to remain in effect and further recommends to have it raised to 100% coverage. Mr. Mann reported that this would keep USC competitive with other Universities.

He mentioned that the GSA met in November with President Sorenson, and the President himself expressed a desire for the Health Insurance Subsidy to be increased to 100%. However, the GSA was notified by Dr. Buggy that the subsidy would no longer continue. The GSA sent a letter to Dean Fitzpatrick (in her capacity as chair of the Council of Academic Deans) to share their concerns about the subsidy being eliminated. The GSA also distributed a copy of this letter to the Graduate Council.
Mr. Mann stated that GSA would like to have Graduate Council support when they make an appeal to the Council of the Academic Deans and to the Provost in the Fall.

The Council agreed to discuss the issue and make a decision during its next meeting in February. Mr. Mann asked that the GSA be notified of the Council’s decision and their rationale for the decision.

   Dean Buggy reported and demonstrated new features added to the Graduate School webpage on enrollment demographics. A link has been added to the report submitted by USC for the Council of Graduate Schools / Graduate Record Examinations Board annual survey of graduate enrollment and degrees at member institutions. The information includes graduate student application, enrollment, and degrees awarded demographics for 50 program groupings. The information presented is derived from the IMS system which will be replaced by a more modern administrative computing system through the OneCarolina initiative which is now underway.

   Dr. Faber commented on the importance of sharing this type of information with the entire University community.

   Dr. Dubinsky reported that Graduate Student Day is on April 2, 2008. He directed the Council to the Graduate School website for detailed information regarding the event. Faculty nominations of graduate students to participate will be accepted at the Graduate School through March 14, 2008. The event will consist of presentation and poster competitions and an awards ceremony. This year's Graduate Student Day will also include selected creative exhibitions and performances, with some of these being presented in the Russell House Theater on Tuesday evening, 1 April 2008. The National Research Council assessment of doctoral programs is delayed. It is now scheduled for early Fall.

The Council was asked to recommend candidates for Doctoral Hooding Speaker this year. A final decision will be made by Friday, March 28, 2008.

Graduate School staff attended a Webinar with Collegenet. The vendor is being reviewed for revising the current Graduate School electronic application. The Graduate School will decide on a vendor by Summer. The chosen vendor’s program will be a compatible interface with the new enrollment management software.

Dr. Trainer gave a report on the status of the Bulletin Review Committee. The Committee has selected the University of Virginia’s Graduate School website as an ideal graduate school bulletin webpage design. The committee plans to work with Professor Bickle and the Program Review Committee to develop an electronic bulletin web design that is user-friendly and present precise curriculum content to better service students, faculty and staff. The plan is to revise each USC departmental webpage to follow this template. The departments will be given the opportunity to review the new design and provide feedback. Once approved, the websites will go on-line. Implementation is planned to coordinate with the OneCarolina rollout in Spring 2009.

Professor Voulgaris suggested that a CD version of the Bulletin be developed for distribution to prospective students who do not have the internet access. Dr. Trainer will present this suggestion to the Bulletin Review Committee for consideration.

Dr. Trainer also reported on the Academic Program Development Policy Workgroup. The group is developing draft policies and guidelines that will codify curricular processing such as how new courses are approved, how course level changes are implemented, how course name changes are processed, etc. Once developed, the draft policies will be presented to the Graduate Council. The new curricular policies will streamline procedures between the Graduate Council and the Faculty Senate.

Dr. Trainer asked if the Anthony Edwards Award was included in the awards to be presented on Graduate Student Day. Professor Dubinsky replied that specific criteria and guidelines still need to be developed regarding disbursement of this award. Professor Farber charged the Fellowships Committee to develop the guidelines and criteria for disbursement of this award. The award should be made available for inclusion in Graduate Student Day 2009.

    Professor Farber presented the proposed policy change to the Graduate Director’s Manual - Proposal #1:

    Page 4 - Section B. Specific Responsibilities
    1. Processing and evaluation of applications
    2. Transmitting to The Graduate School the program’s recommendation on admission for ALL admission for all applicants by the first day of classes of the term for which the applicant applied.

    Admission Standards - 3rd paragraph
    The program’s recommendation of admission decision for ALL applicants must be transmitted to The Graduate School by the first day of classes of the term for which the applicant applied. This is done by submitting an electronic action sheet to The Graduate School for each applicant. If an applicant is declined, the Graduate Director or appropriate program representative may provide additional information to the applicant regarding the potential for admission in the future. However, the decline action recommendation must be filed and the applicant sent a letter from The Graduate School indicating this official action.

    The Council approved Proposal #1.

    Professor Farber presented the proposed policy change to the Graduate Director’s Manual - Proposal #2:

    Addition of the following:
    Each graduate program determines the minimum standard criteria acceptable for admission, (e.g. minimum standardized test scores, minimum GPA, minimum portfolio review score, minimum interview scores). The criteria may or may not be published, but must be formally shared with the Graduate School and will be used by the Graduate School Coordinators to guide admission actions. Admission for any applicant with credentials below the determined minimum(s) will require a memo of justification describing alternative evidence of the applicant’s qualifications.
Professor Buggy recommended a change to the last sentence of the proposal from “Admission for any applicant…” to “Recommendation for admission for any application…”

After discussion, the Council approved the following:

Each graduate program determines the minimum standard criteria acceptable for admission, (e.g. minimum standardized test scores, minimum GPA, minimum portfolio review score, minimum interview scores). The criteria may or may not be published, but must be formally shared with the Graduate School and will be used by the Graduate School Coordinators to guide admission actions. 2. Approval of minutes (Minutes of the March 24, 2008 meeting).

   The minutes were reviewed electronically and approved by the Council. [A copy of Minutes are on file at The Graduate School; also posted on The Graduate School website at http://www.gradschool.sc.edu/gradcouncil/index.html]
3. Report of the Graduate Dean (Dean Buggy)

Dr. Buggy reported on the plans for the doctoral hooding May 10 ceremony. The speaker this year will be Maryann Fitzpatrick, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

There will be a Graduate Director’s meeting May 7. At the meeting, the Graduate Director’s will be given a demonstration and asked for input on the new electronic Graduate School application process.

A Graduate Director from the Department of Chemistry asked the Graduate School if students had access to the Thompson Health Center between semesters. Dr. Buggy received clarification from Deborah Beck, the Executive Director of Student Health Services. She explained that students did have access but would have to pay for services between semesters. The Graduate Director of Chemistry was informed of the policy. Deborah Beck also mentioned that Student Health Services is planning a meeting at the end of April to discuss this issue. Dr. Buggy shared information or the meeting with the members of the Graduate Student Association so they could attend and ensure that the issues of the Graduate Students are voiced.

Dr. Buggy then asked Associate Dean Dubinsky to report on Graduate Student Day held April 2. Dubinsky reported that the events of Graduate Student Day went well, explained the revised processes, and commented that the participation of presenters and judges was outstanding. The winners of each competition and the abstracts of the presented posters and papers are posted on the Graduate School website. The USC Times featured two articles on the successful event.

The counselor education program offers two areas of concentration leading to the degree of education specialist: school counseling and marriage and family counseling/therapy. The Ed.S. degree requires 66 hours and is accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Counseling Related Educational Programs (CACREP).

School Counseling

The Ed.S. in Counselor Education with a specialization in school counseling fulfills the certification requirements for endorsement as a K-12 school counselor in South Carolina. Students are advised to speak to the appropriate staff in the Office of Student Affairs (Wardlaw 113) for information about the certification requirements of other states. Completion of this specialization may also satisfy South Carolina's academic requirements for licensure as a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC-Intern). After the completion of the required post-degree clinical hours and supervision of these hours, licensure as an LPC is possible. Students are advised to contact the appropriate licensing board.

Marriage and Family Counseling/Therapy

The Ed.S. in Counselor Education with a specialization in marriage and family counseling/therapy may fulfill the academic licensure requirements of states that specify the completion of a two-year program of graduate study for licensure as a marriage and family counselor/therapist. Be advised that completion of this specific course of study does not prepare the graduate for endorsement by the University as a school counselor. The student must also be aware that state licensing boards may have additional academic and/or supervised clinical requirements beyond the qualifying degree in order to obtain a license to practice. Students are advised to contact the appropriate licensing board for application materials and to discuss these requirements with their advisors.

Admission

Applicants are responsible for ensuring that their application is complete and received by The Graduate School by October 1 or February 1 for admission. In addition to The Graduate School's application requirements, applicants must submit a letter of intent stating the student's desire to enter the degree program and outlining long-term professional goals and estimated length of time to complete a program of study, and a current resume.

The Ed.S. degree requires 66 hours composed of:

- Core Courses (30 credit hours): EDCE 510, 600, 660, 1,700, 702, 706, 707, 710, 720, and 721 or 716
- Clinical Courses (9 credit hours): EDCE 802 (3 credit hours) and EDCE 805 (6 credit hours)

Non-RS.N. degree prepared students take additional course work as prerequisites and corequisites with the D.N.P. curriculum. These students are awarded the B.S.N. degree upon completion of the additional coursework and the prescribed credits of D.N.P. coursework needed for licensure. Once the B.S.N. course work is completed, students may take the National Council Licensure Examination(NCLEX). Students must be successful on the NCLEX before they are eligible to enroll in the remaining D.N.P. courses. Length of study for non- B.S.N. degree prepared students is typically eight semesters (including summers) of full-time study. Part-time study is available; however, full-time study is required while taking the pre-licensure courses.

Professor Dubinsky presented in absence of Professor Pirisi-Creek. The Fellowships Committee completed the Third Round of nominations on April 7, 2008. There are 12 Graduate Fellowships nominations. The Committee will meet to determine award recipients.

9. Report of the Program Review Committee (Professor Bickle)

No Report.

10. Report of Academic Policy and Practices Committee (Professor Farber)

Dr. Zimmerman reported a need for revision of the Graduate Council manual and is working on revisions to align it with the Graduate Bullething and the Graduate Directors’ Manual. She also reported on the process of soliciting nominations for new members of the Graduate Council and the difficulty in finding Graduate Faculty willing to be nominated. Dr. Zimmerman reported that the responses given by faculty and Graduate Directors for the unwillingness to be nominated are that units are already too service-heavy in this academic climate and/or that the numbers of senior graduate faculty in units available for such service are declining.

Dr. Farber wanted noted on record of some of the reasons/responses as to why faculty declined nomination/participation in Graduate Council.

Dr. Zimmerman also reported that the process for elected Graduate Council members was complicated and archaic and referred review of the process to the recommended changes to the Policies and Practices Committee.

The Policy and Practices Committee proposed changes to the Graduate Council Manual:

Page 4, Section IV. Graduate Council Membership

A. Elected and Appointed Members

_Last sentence, first paragraph now reads:_

The Graduate School is currently comprised of twenty faculty members and the Dean of The Graduate School. Members of the Graduate Council include both elected and appointed Columbia faculty. In 2005-2006, nine (9) members are elected and nine(9) members are appointed.
Propose change to:
The Graduate Council has twenty (20) members and is comprised of eighteen (18) Graduate Faculty members, the Dean of the Graduate School, and the Associate or Assistant Dean of the Graduate School who serves as Council Secretary. Nine (9) Graduate Faculty members are elected by the Graduate Faculty and nine (9) Graduate Faculty members are appointed by the President of the University. The eighteen Graduate Faculty members are voting members. The Dean of the Graduate School and the Council Secretary are non-voting members.

B. Election Procedures

Now reads:
A mail ballot is used for electing Council members. Nominations are solicited from the graduate academic units, and ballots are mailed to all members of the Graduate Faculty. Ballots are returned to the Dean’s office, where the votes are counted. The rules of the Faculty Senate are followed in determining the outcome - i.e., to be elected a candidate must receive at least one more vote than the quotient of the total votes cast divided by twice the number of seats to be filled. If a runoff is necessary, the number of candidates is limited to twice the number of seats to be filled. New members take office at the beginning of the fall semester.

Propose change to:
A ballot is used for electing Council members. Ballots may be mailed either in paper or electronically as long as the voting process is secure and anonymous to the election tellers. Tellers are appointed by the sitting Chair of the Graduate Council. Candidates receiving the largest number of votes are elected to fill the vacant seats. In the event of a tie, the candidate(s) to be seated will be determined by lot. If the number of candidates does not exceed the number of seats to be filled, the Graduate Council may vote to elect the candidates by acclamation rather than conduct the election by ballot. This vote of the Graduate Council is subject to the same process of challenge as other Council decisions. New members take office at the beginning of the fall semester.

Page 5, Section IV - Graduate Council Membership

C. Officers of the Graduate Council

Now reads:
The Associate Dean of the Graduate School is designated as the Council’s Secretary.

Propose change to:
The Associate or Assistant Dean of the Graduate School is designated by the Dean of the Graduate School to serve as the Secretary of Graduate Council.

The Graduate Council approved all three changes to the Graduate Council manual.

Dr. Buggy asked the Policies and Practices Committee to review the academic standards related to academic probation notification and length of probations resulting from incomplete grade postings. He described the current practice that, for example, a student takes a course in Fall 2006 and receives a grade of incomplete that may convert to an F. The administrative change from I to F is not posted to the transcript until the end of Fall 2007, but is posted back to the Fall 2006 semester. If that conversion results in a student’s GPA falling below a 3.0, then that student would be placed on academic probation for a year under current policy. He felt the policy should be revised so that such students receiving I grades which converted should not be given the same one year term of probation because they had already had one year to remove the incomplete grade. He suggested that a shorter probationary period of one regular semester be given to those students.

The Policy and Practices Committee proposed changes to the Academic Standards Policy:

Now reads:
Academic Probation and Suspension Policy ("3.00 Rule")
Graduate degree-seeking students whose cumulative grade point average drops below 3.00 (B) will be placed on academic probation and allowed one calendar year in which to raise the grade point average to at least 3.00. In the case of conversion grades for incompletes that cause a GPA to drop below 3.0, a degree-seeking student will be placed on academic probation at the end of the semester in which the grade is posted. Students who do not reach a cumulative 3.00 grade point average during the probationary period will not be permitted to enroll for further graduate course work as a degree or non-degree student.

Colleges and departments may impose more stringent requirements than The Graduate School's Academic suspension policy. Students should consult their advisors to ensure familiarity with departmental regulations.

Students whose cumulative GPA falls below the required minimum of 3.0 by receiving a grade for a course in which they received an Incomplete will, instead of a one year probationary period, be granted only one major semester of probation dating from the semester in which the grade is received by the registrar in which to raise their cumulative GPA to 3.0 or above. Students who do not reach a cumulative 3.00 grade point average during the probationary period will not be permitted to enroll for further graduate course work as a degree or non-degree student.

The Graduate Council voted to adopt the change to the Academic Standards Policy.

Proposal for concurrent earning of a PharmD and PhD degrees on the Columbia Campus of the South Carolina College of Pharmacy

March 17, 2008

This document describes how students in the professional (PharmD) program of the South Carolina College of Pharmacy can concurrently earn a PhD in pharmaceutical sciences on the University of South Carolina Campus.

Brief introduction to the South Carolina College of Pharmacy (SCCP)

As directly quoted from the memorandum of understanding approved by the respective boards of trustees, "SCCP was created to integrate the USC College of Pharmacy and the MUSC College of Pharmacy through a unified administrative structure designed to enhance the educational, research and service opportunities available to pharmacy students and faculty by coordinating efficiently the strengths and resources of each PharmD program." Professional students entering SCCP, regardless of campus, have a single curriculum taught by distance education from both campuses to both campuses. Thus, the students in the professional program receive essentially the same training. In July of 2007, the American Council on Pharmaceutical Education (ACPE) granted candidate status to the SCCP. The ACPE approved curriculum consists of 146 credit hours of didactic and experiential training to fulfill the requirements for a PharmD degree (See appendix I).

Background of the jointly approved PhD program at the USC and MUSC Colleges of Pharmacy

The South Carolina College of Pharmacy offers a PhD degree in pharmaceutical sciences that is jointly administered by USC and MUSC. The program was accredited by CHE over 20 years ago. On the two campuses, complementary areas of emphasis in pharmaceutical sciences have evolved over time largely defined by the research expertise of the faculty on the respective campuses. When originally approved, the graduate program was designed to matriculate students with a Bachelor’s degree in Pharmacy and to provide doctoral training in pharmaceutical sciences. Colleges of Pharmacy in the United States no longer offer bachelor’s degrees, and now offer the PharmD as the terminal degree required to enter the pharmacy profession. With the change in pharmacy curriculum to a PharmD degree, it now becomes feasible for students to pursue a PharmD and PhD degree in pharmaceutical sciences concurrently. This document provides the framework by which students who are pursuing a PharmD can also earn a PhD degree concurrently. Pursuing both degrees is becoming a more popular choice for the brightest students who apply to the PharmD program, and as such is necessary to have in place as a recruiting tool. Graduates of such programs have widened career opportunities in academia, industry, and government. MUSC has already approved the concurrent earning of a PharmD and PhD for the Charleston campus of the SCCP. This proposal will create an equal opportunity for USC campus students of SCCP.

Admission requirements

Students must first be accepted into the PharmD program. The pursuit of both degrees is a rigorous undertaking and it is understood that only the most talented and motivated students will pursue earning the PhD concurrently. Students with a GPA of 3.4 or higher after their first year in the PharmD program can apply for the PhD program at the end of the spring semester. A student who wishes to be considered for graduate admission must submit to The Graduate School a completed application (GS-3), transcripts containing all prior college coursework, letters of recommendation, and score on the PCAT (Pharmacy College Admission Test). Because applicants to the PharmD program are required to take the PCAT, students who wish to apply for the PhD program will not be required to take the GRE. The graduate admissions committee of SCCP will consider applicants and make recommendations for admission into the PhD program. The Graduate School officially accepts students into the PhD program.

Students who do not have a prior Bachelor's degree. It is not a requirement that students have a prior Bachelor's degree before entering a graduate program. From the Graduate Director's Manual: "Applicants whose educational preparation is equivalent to that represented by a baccalaureate degree and who have sufficient maturity to undertake advanced study may be admitted after submitting their credentials, including appropriate test scores, for review by the dean of The Graduate School."

Students must have completed at least 90 hours of undergraduate course work and have a minimum GPA of 3.40 overall, as well as in their undergraduate major courses. A fully approved Application for Admission to a Combined Bachelor's/Master's Education Plan (BMAP, GS-59) must be on file in The Graduate School.

Curricular requirements for the PhD
The USC graduate school requires a minimum of 60 credit hours to earn the doctorate. Of the 60 hours, a minimum of 30 must be unique to the PhD degree. For the PhD degree in pharmaceutical sciences, "core" courses in medicinal chemistry, pharmaceutics, and pharmacology are required of graduate students who do not have a PharmD. Recommendations for subsequent courses then follow sub-discipline and thematic specializations. Current specializations are in the areas of medicinal chemistry (biomedical and synthetic), pharmaceutics, and pharmacology. The PharmD curriculum for SCCP contains 600 and 700 level courses for each of the pharmaceutical core courses. Thus, it would not be necessary for students pursuing a PharmD and PhD concurrently to take the currently required 'core' courses for the PhD students. The PhD portion of the concurrent curriculum would focus on graduate level topics deemed appropriate in sub-discipline and specialization areas.

Concurrent courses for the PhD and PharmD
The PharmD curriculum of SCCP has one 2 credit hour elective required each semester in the fall and spring of the second and third professional year (Appendix I). Students pursuing a PharmD and PhD concurrently will take elective courses approved for graduate credit that fulfill requirements for the PhD program. Electives in the PharmD curriculum total eight hours; however, the curriculum does not stipulate that students take only 2 credit hour courses. Graduate courses are most often 3 or 4 credit hour courses, so students would take up to nine credit hours that would count towards both degrees, under the university "Bachelor's/Master's Education Plan." In order to count towards the PhD, at least half of the graduate courses must be numbered 700 or above. Courses numbered 500-699 are acceptable if they have been approved for graduate credit. Graduate courses taught in units other than SCCP must be approved by the graduate faculty of SCCP as appropriate for a PhD degree in pharmaceutical sciences.

The following stipulations must be met to receive graduate credit for courses taken as PharmD electives (i.e., double counted). The student must have completed at least 90 hours of undergraduate course work, have a minimum GPA of 3.40, and form GS-59 must be on file in The Graduate School. A grade of "B" or higher must be earned for the course to count for graduate credit. Registration for the course requires approval of the student's advisor, the chair of the student's department, the graduate director of the PhD program, and the Dean of The Graduate School. Form GS-59A must be processed for each graduate credit course at the time of registration to permit the Registrar's Office to properly enroll the student for graduate credit.

Once the PharmD curriculum is complete, the curriculum requirements for the PhD degree will be:

- Up to three graduate level courses taken as electives for the PharmD (9 h maximum counted towards both degrees) 0-9 h
- Two to five graduate level courses (not taken for the PharmD degree) 6 - 15 h
- Total didactic courses ≥ 15 h
- PHAR 712A-D (graduate seminar) 4 h
- PHAR 899 (dissertation preparation) 12 h
- PHAR 896 (doctoral directed research) ≤ 29 h

Total credit hours 60 hours (minimum of 51 hours unique to the PhD)

Timeline of progression
The first three years of progression will follow the curriculum of the PharmD program, with graduate level courses taken as electives (Appendix I). The fourth year of the PharmD program requires that the students complete advanced practice experiential education comprised of nine 4-credit rotations. According to ACPE and SCCP guidelines, up to three of these rotations may be taken as research rotations. Upon completion of all rotations, the students will have fulfilled the requirements for the PharmD degree. Beginning in the fifth year, the students will become full-time PhD students in the graduate program.

Standards and Progression to the PhD degree
The standards and steps to progression of the PhD in pharmaceutical sciences are described in detail in the 2006-2007 Graduate Student Handbook of the Department of Basic Pharmaceutical Sciences (See Appendix II, which contains pages 1-18 of the handbook, PhD curriculum and requirements).

Candidates for the concurrent earning of the PharmD and PhD degree will be held to the same academic standards for students who pursue the PhD degree in the department and at USC (Appendix II, pages 3-4). In brief:
- Graduate courses taken for credit must be passed with a “C” or better.
- A grade point average of at least 3.0 must be obtained on all courses attempted for graduate credit.
- A grade point average of at least 3.0 must be obtained on all courses numbered 700 or above.
- A student accumulating 12 credit hours with a grade of “C+” or below in graduate courses will not be eligible for a graduate degree.

Next Meeting of Curricula and Courses Committee of the Faculty Senate: Monday, August 18, 2008 at 2:00 pm.

8. Report of the Fellowships Committee (Dr. Dubinsky reported for Dr. Pirisi-Creek)

There are 10 new minority scholarships available for 2008-2009. A list of the 2007-2008 award winning recipients is reported on the Graduate School website. As reported previously, a review of all Fellowship funds is under review to determine better use of funds for next year.

9. Report of the Program Review Committee (Dr. Bickle)

Dr. Bickle reported that a review of the University websites will continue throughout the summer and will be reported at the next meeting of the Graduate Council.

10. Report of Academic Policy and Practices Committee (Dr. Farber)

Dr. Farber presented three proposals recommended:

Recommended Bulletin changes:

1) Increase TOEFL minimum for internet-based format from 75 to 80 (Proposed deleted wording is shown as strikethrough and proposed changes are underlined)

5. International applicants whose native language is not English are also required to submit a satisfactory score on the TOEFL or the IELTS Intl. Academic Course Type 2 exam. The minimum acceptable score on the TOEFL is 75 (Internet-based), 230 (computer-based), or 570 (paper-based), but many programs have set higher requirements. The minimum acceptable overall band score on the IELTS Intl. Academic Course Type 2 exam is 6.5.

International Students and Credentials

... An applicant whose native language is not English is required to submit a satisfactory score on the TOEFL or the IELTS Intl. Academic Course Type 2 exam. The minimum acceptable score on the TOEFL is 75 (Internet-based), 230 (computer-based) or 570 (paper-based), but many programs have set higher standards. The minimum acceptable overall band score on the IELTS Intl. Academic Course Type 2 exam is 6.5.

Justification: The current internet-based minimum was set at a value lower than the concordance value predicted by ETS to allow more time to establish confidence in the value. Based on 2005 concordance tables between internet-based and paper-based totals, 74-75 corresponds to 537, 79-80 corresponds to 550, and 88-89 corresponds to 570-573.

This proposal of 80 for internet-based minimum is a gradual change that is closer to concordance, and a value in keeping with many other graduate schools according to tables from the ETS website and from a table provide by Alexandra Rowe of USC EPI obtained from an Oregon State compilation.

The Council voted to approve the change.

2) Change requirements for dissertation research credits from 'only' 12 credits to 'a minimum of' 12 credits. After extensive discussion, the proposal was amended from 'a minimum of 12 credits' to 'a minimum of 12 and a maximum of 30 hours 'of dissertation preparation. The new bulletin wording is as follows:

<td>Doctor of Philosophy Degree Requirements&lt;br&gt;The granting of a doctoral degree by the University of South Carolina presupposes a minimum of three full years of graduate study (or the equivalent) and requires a minimum of 60 graduate hours (including only 12 hours of dissertation preparation) beyond the baccalaureate, or a minimum of 30 graduate hours (including only 12 hours of dissertation preparation) beyond the master's degree. Candidates for doctoral degrees must complete at least half of their credit hours—exclusive of dissertation credit—in courses numbered 700 and higher. A dissertation based on original research, with credit for 12 hours of dissertation preparation, is required in most doctoral programs. Dissertation&lt;br&gt;No later than five years after passing the comprehensive examination, the student must present a dissertation based on research that has been approved by a committee of professors in the major field. During the preparation of the dissertation, any student who uses University facilities or confers with faculty about dissertation work must be officially enrolled for at least one hour of academic credit. &lt;br&gt;Twelve credits in 899 Dissertation Preparation are required for most doctoral degrees. Only 12 hours of 899 are allowed on the program of study although candidates may exceed 12 hours to meet conditions specified in the previous sentence.</td>

Justification: Neighboring universities including Univ. Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, and Virginia Tech do not have similar restrictions on use of dissertation research credits. Some USC PhD programs have requested a change in wording to not limit the number of credits of dissertation research that can be used in a program of study. This change would not require any existing program to modify their requirements. Although there was concern that some programs could eliminate all didactic course requirements, it was recognized that a program could not change current degree requirements listed in the Bulletin without Graduate Council approval.
The Council voted to approve the changes as amended.

3) Change requirements for thesis research credits from ‘not more than 6’ credits to ‘not more than 9’ credits. Proposed deleted wording is shown as strikethrough and proposed new wording is underlined.
