The Graduate Council met on Monday, November 27, 2017 at 2:00 P.M. in Room 311 of the Byrnes Building.

Graduate Council members present: Dr. Dirk den Ouden, Chair; Drs. Swann Adams, Bobby Brame, Jr., Cathy Brant, Matt Childs, Maks Chruszcz, Jean Ellis, Maryah Fram, Sali Li, Douglas Pittman, Konstantin Pollok, Tom Regan, Sirivatch Shimpalee, Kellee White, Scott White, and Matthew Owens, GSA Representative.

Graduate Council members absent: Drs. Drucilla Barker, Rick Creswick, and Collin Webster.

Graduate School Representatives: Dr. Cheryl Addy, Dr. Murray Mitchell (Secretary), Dr. Heather Brandt (excused), Dale Moore, and Wanda Barr

Provost Office Representative: Dr. Tena Crews

Guests: Dr. Hiram McDade (COMD), Dr. Elizabeth Regan (IIT), and Andy Graves (Office of the Registrar)

NOTE: These minutes will become final on December 11, 2017 if not challenged.

1. Call to Order and Approval of Agenda (Dirk den Ouden, Chair)
The meeting was called to order at 2:00 pm, and the agenda was unanimously approved.

2. Approval of the Minutes from October 23, 2017. The minutes were reviewed electronically and approved by the Graduate Council. A copy is available on The Graduate School website at: http://app.gradschool.sc.edu/gradcouncil/minutes.asp

3. Report of the Chair (Dirk den Ouden)
Dr. den Ouden reported that he had attended a Graduate Deans meeting with Dr. Cheryl Addy and Dr. Murray Mitchell. A new proposed Tax reform plan was discussed that would greatly affect graduate students.

4. Report of the Dean of Graduate School (Cheryl Addy)
Dean Addy continued with the new proposed Tax reform plan. She has heard from a fair number of concerned faculty and graduate students regarding the impact of the new Tax Reform. As a state university, we have to be very careful how we respond to something this political. She has been working with Steve Beckham, our Federal Legislative Liaison, helping him to provide enrollment/GA/tuition information to our federal representatives. The biggest thing that we can do is to ask citizens to talk to our state senators and representatives to advocate for what we think is right. There are two major areas of impact of the proposed tax reform in respect to graduate education: 1) proposal to treat tuition waivers and tuition supplements as taxable income and 2) eliminating the student loan interest deduction.

For this semester, we have just over 6700 graduate students. There are 2159 students with graduate assistantships. A year ago, we had 2340 graduate assistants, but our enrollment was higher. Using last year's data, of the 2300 graduate assistantships, 1800 were non-resident students. That means three-fourths of the graduate assistants qualified for resident tuition. In addition to the graduate assistants, 437 students had fellowships only of which 75% of those were non-resident students who qualified for resident tuition. Approximately 70% of the graduate assistants also get a portion of their tuition paid by their funding source. Almost 2000 students will be impacted if this Tax reform gets passed.

Last week, she, Dr. Mitchell, and Dr. den Ouden met with the Associate and Assistant Graduate Deans.
These are a few things that came more from the provost:

- She and Dr. Crews are working on updates to ACAF 2.00 and 2.03. For ACAF 2.00 Academic Programs the more substantive change is expanding required pre-authorization. For ACAF 2.03 Academic Courses, we will be clarifying definitions for cross-listed courses and procedures for “meets with” courses (administrative not governance approval).
- A committee organized by Doug Foster (CIO, Division of IT) is exploring a campus level initiative for verified e-signatures. In the environmental scan, our graduate school forms were identified several times as good opportunities for electronic signatures.

Dr. John Monnier from Chemical Engineering is the speaker for doctoral hooding next month. He is a recent inductee to the National Academy of Engineering.

5. Report of the Secretary of the Graduate Council (Murray Mitchell)

Dr. Mitchell reported that we are working with the Office of the Registrar to create an electronic submission process for Special Topics Course Proposals. We are pilot testing with just a couple of programs to ensure that the system can work. Our hope is that this approach will enhance the ways in which these courses are submitted and approved.

We are continuing to monitor the potential implications of tax law changes for graduate students and sponsoring faculty with grants. For those of you interested in expressing your personal views, you may choose to write to Lindsay Graham and Tim Scott to express your opinion. You might particularly wish to point out that the burden of being taxed on monies never seen (e.g., tuition waivers, fellowships, etc.) will be greatest on low income students / families.

This is presently a season with a lot of requests for extensions to deadlines for defending and submitting thesis and dissertation documents. Please encourage / remind your colleagues to advise their students to meet the format check deadline. Meeting this deadline does not require a document ready to defend. Whatever is used to propose the work is likely to be sufficient. With the format approved in advance, students and their committees are free to focus on the more substantive issues surrounding the document. Extensions to the defense and final submission will not be considered if the student has not cleared the format check. This is an equity issue for the students who have met deadlines, to ensure that their work can be fully approved and they can graduate on time.

There was discussion recently at a meeting of Associate and Assistant Graduate Deans of creating and publishing a timeline for appeals:

- a. From a College decision to an appeal to the Graduate Council: 20 business days.
- b. From receipt of an appeal to a Graduate Council decision: 40 business days (with an exception across summer months when the Council does not meet)
- c. From a Graduate Council decision to an appeal to the Provost: 20 business days.

Discussion ensued. The conclusion was that these dates appear reasonable.

Discussion was initiated on the role of an outside member of doctoral committees (especially dissertation committees)—two popular positions:

- a. Serving as an advocate for students to ensure the process is fair to the student.
- b. Bringing additional expertise to the work being done.
Spirited discussion indicated a range of experiences by Council members. Additional expertise was the most common experience.

Discussion was also initiated on how to define “internal” members of doctoral committees. Again, a spirited discussion in support of more liberal interpretations to facilitate interdisciplinary work ensued. No final policy statement was identified; committee membership will be an issue to be assigned to the Academic Policy and Practices Committee.

Dr. Mitchell expressed appreciation to the Council for taking the time to discuss these substantive issues. There has been a concerted effort for several years to move the time spent in these meetings away from being dominated by necessary but, mundane tasks, to address issues that impact the potential and vision to improve graduate education at the University of South Carolina.

6. Report on Professional Development (Heather Brandt)
   No Report.

7. Report of the Graduate Student Association Representative (Matthew Owens)
   Matthew reported the GSA President and GSA Vice President sat in on phone calls with the National Association of Graduate and Professional Students to brainstorm ways to get our students more involved and to get their voices heard regarding the Tax reform bill. Last week, a bulletin was sent out to graduate students informing them about the Tax reform bill and its impact on graduate students.

   Dr. Fram reported that with Dr. Mitchell’s assistance, they are working on consideration of the language regarding transfer credits in the Certificate and Graduate Specialists, Master’s, Doctoral and Academic Regulations. Many of the changes involve cleaning up the language and removing some of the redundant language. After much discussion, it was determined that the Committee would present proposed changes, indicating what was supported by the Committee and what wording still required discussion prior to a vote on each section of proposed changes.

Dr. Mitchell requested that the Committee members take back to their departments that Special Topics Courses should be courses that are infrequently used and experimental to be determined if they can be a course that should ultimately be a full-time course. These courses could also take advantage of the expertise of someone nearby who would have never had the opportunity to display that expertise. These topics could also be timely with issues that are going on in the world around us. They are not intended to be used semester after semester. If the Special Topics Course pans out, pitch it as an actual bona fide full-time course.

Dr. Adams followed up on the concern about the potential “at risk” students that may not have access to particular behavioral resource service programs if they are not enrolled in hours but still working toward their graduate degree.

In the event that a student has been told that her/his admission is being cancelled, is there a way to continue to offer support services? Dr. Addy indicated that follow up is underway with the Student Health Services and the Student Affairs office to see if students can still have limited access to the behavioral services through the end of the semester where their status is changing.

Please be reminded that our last meeting in December will be Monday, December 11, 2017, at 11:30 am. Since classes end on December 8, 2017, we moved the meeting to earlier in the day in the hope of giving more time to members for other demands.

Please consider the attached list as a starting place for discussion surrounding what should be in the Graduate Bulletin for all programs. At present, the range is substantial. We are hoping to provide a bit more guidance to standardize information available to everyone.
