Staff Attorney – Business Litigation

Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP seeks a highly qualified Staff Attorney to join its Business Litigation Practice Group in any of the Firm’s following offices: Greenville SC, Charleston SC, or Atlanta GA. This opportunity is a “work from home” situation and the ability to work remotely is necessary.

Candidates must have 4-6 years of civil litigation experience. Strong preference for candidates with a financial services background, primarily in the mortgage area. Candidates must be barred in the jurisdiction in which they practice since the ability to attend court proceedings solo is required. Excellent interpersonal skills, strong writing skills and solid academic credentials are required. Womble Bond Dickinson is committed to leadership in attracting, developing, and retaining a diverse workforce of highly talented professionals. Please apply through our online portal, attaching a resume, law school transcript, cover letter and writing sample on the application screen (https://www.womblebonddickinson.com/us/careers).

Deadline date to apply 11/1/18

Job Description:
A South Carolina Law Firm is looking for an Attorney to join our team. The person in this role will handle a large volume of cases of multiple types, consisting primarily of Personal Injury and Worker’s Compensation. The attorney will work with a team of Paralegals and Legal Assistants but needs to be able to work and function independently to drive the success of a case. Most importantly, the person we hire will be tech-savvy, highly organized, detail-oriented, work well without direct supervision, and enjoy a fast-paced work environment. This position would be based in our Greenville office.

What you would do:
- Treat every client like family.
- Maximize the value of personal injury and worker’s compensation cases.
- Skillfully negotiate with insurance companies.
- Treat your team members with the highest degree of respect.
- Move cases expeditiously from beginning to end.
- Attend hearings and argue motions in both common pleas and in front of the Worker’s Compensation Commission.
- Attend Approved Legal conferences to obtain necessary CLEs each year (paid for by the firm).

Requirements:
- Outstanding written and oral communication skills.
- The ability to work in a rapidly changing environment.
- Strong attention to detail and excellent work ethic.
- Outstanding computer, research, technological, and organizational skills.
- Outstanding people skills.
- The ability to both think strategically and execute the fine details of a plan.

Preferences:
- Dual licensing in South and North Carolina.
- 2 to 5 years of experience in a high volume personal injury and workers’ compensation firm.
- Experience handling numerous soft tissue car wreck cases, working with health care providers, and settling the cases as soon as the case reasonably allows, always in the best interest of the client.
- A strong desire to join a firm with excellent growth potential, and take advantage of opportunities of personal growth and advancement.
- Willingness to work on partial commission based compensation transitioning to full with an increased hunger for advancement and financial opportunity. Grit, hard work, scrappiness.

Carolina Farm Stewardship Association

P.O. Box 448
Pittsboro, NC 27312

Contact Person: Rochelle Sparko
Title: Policy Director

Deadline date to apply 9/15/18
Position start date 11/1/18 (negotiable)

The South Carolina policy coordinator is a full-time, salaried position (40 hours/week) with the Carolina Farm Stewardship Association (CFSA). The position is based in Columbia, South Carolina. The coordinator works as part of the Policy Team to advocate for state and federal policies that better support local food, organic farming, and resilient regional food systems.

ABOUT CFSA

Carolina Farm Stewardship Association (CFSA) is a member-based 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that helps people grow and eat local, organic food by advocating for fair farm and food policies, building the systems that organic family farms need to thrive, and educating communities about local, organic farming. CFSA has worked to enhance the competitiveness of North and South Carolina fruit and vegetable producers for more than thirty years.

POSITION SUMMARY
The coordinator works in collaboration with the policy director, other CFSA staff, and partner organizations to influence the South Carolina General Assembly, state-level administrative agencies, and land-grant universities on issues of importance to local and organic food and farming in South Carolina through direct and grassroots advocacy efforts. Specific responsibilities include working with CFSA’s Policy Team to develop advocacy goals, organizing CFSA members and allies to advocate for specific policy solutions to achieve those goals, educating state and federal policy-makers on issues of importance to the local, organic food and farming community, spearheading and overseeing grassroots communications campaigns in support of CFSA’s policy goals, and supporting CFSA’s organizational allies in South Carolina to demonstrate CFSA’s commitment to, and impact on, agriculture throughout the state.

The work will primarily take place in Columbia, with several days a month traveling to other parts of the South Carolina. CFSA’s headquarters is located in Pittsboro, North Carolina. The coordinator will meet regularly with other CFSA staff by phone or video conference and is expected to travel to headquarters a few times a year for work-related activities.

The South Carolina policy coordinator reports to the policy director.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

State Policy (60%)
- Engage CFSA members and stakeholder communities in developing policy priorities and grassroots campaigns for South Carolina.
- Develop legislative and regulatory proposals and strategies to advance CFSA’s advocacy priorities, as well as implement strategies to influence legislative and regulatory processes.
- Monitor state legislative developments and organize CFSA response to issues relevant to CFSA’s policy priorities and overall mission.
- Achieve policy wins that advance CFSA’s mission and advocacy priorities.

Federal Policy (15%)
- Participate in national coalitions of which CFSA is a member or participant.
- Advance policy priorities of national coalitions that align with CFSA policy priorities.
- Meet with policymakers to advance CFSA’s federal policy priorities.
- Share information with CFSA membership about federal policy priorities.

Community Engagement & Outreach (20%)
- Coordinate media (traditional and social) outreach, in conjunction with CFSA’s Communications Team and partner organizations, in support of local and organic policy priorities.
- Increase awareness and visibility of CFSA’s work, by giving presentations, accepting speaking engagements, and conducting general outreach.
- Identify and pursue opportunities to expand CFSA membership and ensure member satisfaction.
- Represent CFSA at meetings and events held by allied organizations and stakeholders.

Administration (5%)
- Identify and pursue, in conjunction with other CFSA staff, funding opportunities to support policy initiatives.
- Participate in work planning with the Policy Team, consult on reports to CFSA’s Board of Directors and funders about activities, and in weekly meetings of the Policy Team about ongoing work.
- Manage and comply with all certification and record keeping requirements placed on lobbyists by the state of South Carolina.
- Participate in staff meetings and training as scheduled.

POSITION QUALIFICATIONS

Required Qualifications
- A J.D., a master’s degree in public policy, or masters in another relevant field plus 2 years of professional experience; or four years of professional experience.
- Familiarity with the state legislative process and the role of administrative agencies in crafting policy.
- Demonstrated success working on policy campaigns targeting legislative or administrative policymakers.
- Self-directed, organized, and capable of successful work outside of a traditional office structure.
- Proven ability to work well within a team, and with individuals, both internal and external, with diverse viewpoints.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills.
- Commitment to sustainable agriculture principles.

Preferred Qualifications
- Familiarity with food and/or agricultural policy; specific knowledge of the Carolinas’ food system preferred.
- Ability to analyze legislation and regulations in terms of their impact on CFSA’s members, including the ability to identify systemic problems and develop innovative solutions.
- Strong existing networks of farmers, policymakers, and/or agriculture leaders in South Carolina.

CFSA offers a competitive non-profit sector salary in the low- to mid- $40K, DOE, with generous vacation, health insurance, and retirement benefits. CFSA is an equal opportunity employer and encourages applications from people of color and women.

To apply for the South Carolina policy coordinator position, submit a resume, list of professional references, and a cover letter explaining why you want to work to promote local, organic agriculture to apply@carolinafarmstewards.org with “SC Policy Coordinator” in the subject line. You will receive electronic confirmation of your email submission. No calls, please.
