

Children's Law Center

Attorney Trainer (Part-time)
(Program Manager I)

Children's Law Center, USC School of Law, Band 07. $27,338 or commensurate with experience. State benefits included.

Job Duties: This position has two primary purposes: (1) To develop and conduct training related to child protection proceedings, including training programs for parent attorneys, volunteer guardians ad litem, and guardian ad litem program attorneys; and (2) To assist in court skills training for new child welfare professionals by participating in various roles in mock hearings and conducting presentations as requested. This is a part-time position (20 hours per week).

Minimum qualifications include a law degree, membership in the South Carolina Bar, and at least three years of experience in family court, including child protection proceedings. Must have extensive knowledge of laws and procedures related to child protection court proceedings in South Carolina, the ability to conduct training for and establish working relationships with attorneys and other professionals, and the ability to explain legal concepts to nonlawyers.

Preferred qualifications include experience in developing curriculum and conducting training programs for attorneys and other professionals. Prefer experience in use of technology for virtual training. Prefer completion of child law concentration in conjunction with law degree or course work in children's law. Experience in both child welfare and juvenile justice hearings would be a plus.

To apply, submit an online application as required by USC. You may access USC Jobs Online Employment site at <https://uscjobs.sc.edu/postings/95853> .

In addition to completing the online application, attach a cover letter summarizing your qualifications and describing your qualifications for this position.

For more information, contact Cody Lidge, Angela Killian, or Carolyn S. Morris at the Children's Law Center, (803) 777-1646.

The University of South Carolina does not discriminate in educational or employment opportunities on the basis of race, sex, gender, age, color, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, genetics, protected veteran status, pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions.