

Children's Law Center

Juvenile Justice Attorney
(Program Manager I)

Children's Law Center, Band 07. $56,043 or commensurate with experience. State benefits included.

Job Purpose: The Juvenile Justice Attorney will coordinate the legal aspects of a juvenile justice grant project that addresses the de-institutionalization of status offenders. This position includes the provision of staff support to the Status Offender Task Force, development of recommended legal practices for status offense cases, and development of training curricula. The Juvenile Justice Attorney will develop and conduct training for legal and juvenile justice professionals and prepare written resource materials related to the handling of status offense cases.

Minimum qualifications include a law degree, membership in good standing in the South Carolina Bar, and at least four years relevant experience, which must include juvenile justice proceedings. Law school internships or externships may count towards the experience requirement. Must have thorough knowledge of South Carolina statutory and case law and family and circuit court procedures related to juvenile justice. Must be familiar with major policy issues affecting the prosecution and treatment of juveniles. Must have strong written and oral communication skills and the ability to establish effective working relationships with legal partners. We are seeking a self-starter who has the ability to think creatively.

Preferred qualifications include experience in developing and conducting training programs and completion of the Children's Law Concentration in conjunction with the law degree. Experience in the provision of staff support for committees or work groups is also preferred.

To apply, submit an online application as required by USC. You may access USC Jobs Online Employment site at <https://uscjobs.sc.edu/postings/115495>. In addition to completing the online application, attach a cover letter summarizing your qualifications and describing your interest in this position. A resume and list of references may be attached but are not required.
