

Children's Law Center

Juvenile Justice Attorney (Program Manager I)

Children's Law Center, USC Law School, Band 07. Part-time (20 hours per week). $27,338 or commensurate with experience. State benefits included.

Job Duties: Develops and conducts trainings for juvenile justice and legal professionals. Develops printed and web-based resource materials and provides information on juvenile justice law. Provides legal consultation and support as needed for juvenile justice contract and grant-funded projects. Position involves travel within the state.

Minimum qualifications include a law degree, membership in good standing in the South Carolina Bar, and at least 4 years of relevant experience. Experience must include work in juvenile justice court proceedings. Law school internships and externships may count toward the experience requirement. Must have thorough knowledge of South Carolina statutory law, case law, and family court and circuit court procedures related to juvenile justice. Must be familiar with major policy issues affecting the prosecution and treatment of juveniles and have strong written and oral communication skills.

Preferred qualifications include experience in developing and conducting training programs or in public speaking. Prefer completion of children's law concentration in conjunction with law degree.

To apply, submit an online application as required by USC. You may access USC Jobs Online Employment site at <https://uscjobs.sc.edu/postings/94509>

In addition to completing the online application, attach a cover letter summarizing your qualifications and describing your interest in this position. A resume, writing sample, and list of references are optional.

For more information, contact Stephen Scoff at (803) 777-1646 or scoffs@mailbox.sc.edu.

The University of South Carolina does not discriminate in educational or employment opportunities on the basis of race, sex, gender, age, color, religion, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, genetics, protected veteran status, pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions.