Child Homicide - Crime Scene Documentation

Who should attend: Law Enforcement, Investigators, Coroners

Overview: This course deals with understanding the complex and unique challenges presented when a child is found unresponsive. Documentation and preservation of evidence is key to a successful investigation and prosecution. This lecture will cover re-enactment, 911 tape review, scene photographs, and using such information to corroborate or refute the caretaker’s statement(s). The importance of notes, sketches, photography, and videography will be discussed.
