Who should attend: Volunteer GAL contract attorneys

Overview: This full-day webinar will cover multiple topics relevant to the contract GAL attorney’s daily practice in family court and is designed to assist these attorneys with effective representation of their clients, the volunteer GAL, in child abuse and neglect cases. The training will cover fundamentals of the family court practice including understanding the appellate process, a judge’s perspective of the GAL attorney’s practice, updates on DSS policies, legislative updates, and much more.

This is a one-time, live webinar event for all current volunteer GAL contract attorneys. The training will be recorded for attendees to re-watch and for attorneys unable to attend the live session; however, only those attending the live event will be eligible to receive MCLE credits.

This webinar will be held on Cisco’s WebEx platform. Attendees will need to logon to Cisco’s WebEx on a desktop, laptop, tablet, or cellular device.
