Who should attend: Current attorneys and volunteer and staff guardians with the Cass Elias McCarter Guardian ad Litem Program and Richland County CASA

Overview: This training, offered exclusively for current guardians and attorneys with the Cass Elias McCarter Guardian ad Litem Program and Richland County CASA Program, will provide participants with education and resources regarding drug screens and how that knowledge can better inform the work being done with youth and families in the child welfare system. These sessions will have live exercises and time for discussion to ensure that those who complete the training will have enhanced knowledge to better support youth in their cases.

This training will be offered on a virtual platform. The links will be sent to each registrant near the date of the training.
