Who should attend: Staff and volunteers of the SC Cass Elias McCarter Guardian ad Litem program and Richland County CASA

Overview: This training is being offered exclusively for staff and volunteers of the SC Cass Elias McCarter GAL program and Richland County CASA. The purpose of this training is to provide an overview of the Individualized Education Plan (IEP) and the 504 Plan, for children with emotional issues impacting their academic performance. Knowledge of services connected to these two plans and how to access such plans will be shared. This training will also address educational neglect and truancy, and how to identify each, as well as dropout prevention programs offered in districts throughout the state.

This training will be offered virtually on Microsoft Teams. The link will be sent following registration.
