1525 Senate Street
Columbia, SC 29201

Dear UofSC Law School community:

We, students at the University of South Carolina School of Law, condemn the senseless killing of George Floyd by law enforcement officers. We stand together with fellow community members at the University and beyond, who are struggling with a sense of anguish and frustration at the continued problem of violence against Black people and the seemingly intractable nature of racism. We know there can be no true justice for anyone when injustice is suffered by any one of us. May recent events serve as a clarion call for change.

Signed,
