EXPERIENCE

Reference Librarian, University of South Carolina School of Law, Columbia, SC
June 2016 - present

Education

- I co-teach two sections of Legal Research, Analysis & Writing to 1Ls in fall and spring.
- I participate in the shared process of updating curricular materials for LRAW, which include online videos, online quizzes, instant polling, and collaborative in-person work.
- I co-taught Advanced Legal Research in Summer 2018 to upper-division law students.
- I supervised an upper-division student's Supervised Legal Research in Fall 2019.
- I provide guest lectures as requested: Advanced Legal Research (2016), Labor Law (2018, 2019), Torts (2020), and Beach Law (2021) in the law school; Sports Law (2017, 2018) at the honors college and masters levels; undergraduate Introduction to Information Literacy (2017, 2018) and graduate level Special Libraries (2020).
- I taught State Legislative History as part of the training for research assistants (2018).

Outreach

- I edit the law library's blog, library.uofsclaw.org, where I am sole author of each post that is not marked as guest author.
- I manage the law library's social media presence—@UofSCLawLib on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.
- I supervised an undergraduate volunteer who assisted with law library social media presence (Fall 2017).
- I organize or co-organize events and projects:
 - library orientation (2016-2020) and LibraryFest (2016-2019),
 - petition the South Carolina Supreme Court to revise a legal citation rule (2017),
 - create a new library postcard and revise the library brochure (2017),
 - recommend, implement, and provide ongoing training and troubleshooting for reference chat (2017-present) and a reference password manager (2019-present),
 - collaborations with the UofSC Law pro bono program to provide free legal answers through the South Carolina Bar's website (2017 and 2020),
 - the Richard T. Greener document display for the first Black graduate of UofSC Law (March 2018), the Memory Hold the Door biographies display (2018 and 2019), and book displays on timely topics (2018-present).
- I co-founded in Fall 2018 and continue to lead a law school faculty-staff team that provides about 15 Pop Up Tech Talks per school year. These are short interactive demonstrations on practical technology topics that cannot fit in the curriculum. I recruit presenters throughout the law school; coordinate topics, scheduling, and marketing materials; and promote the talks through law school communications channels. The talks I personally lead are on the topics of Boolean searching, Fastcase, and web literacy (Spring 2019, Fall 2019, Spring 2020). Due to covid-19, one talk was changed to a video format and then the series was put on hiatus.

Librarianship and Service

- I staff the reference desk six or eight hours per week, responding to the legal research needs of law students, law faculty, bar members, the university community, government employees, and the public.
- As one of the law library's two liaisons to the South Carolina Law Review, I connected the law review editors with a curriculum they used the following year to train new staff members on legal academic Bluebook citation (2018), provided detailed consultation on a legal data visualization project (2019), and uploaded materials they needed during covid-19 lockdown (2020).
- I monitor new publications in designated subject areas (antitrust, conflict of laws, contracts, equity, regulated industries, and trade regulation; dictionaries, encyclopedias, formbooks, and practice aids) and recommend acquisitions.
- I create and update research guides for law students (Current Events and Green Finance), lawyers (Cybersecurity and Law Firm Technology), and the public (South Carolina Court Forms). The South Carolina Forms guide was co-authored with Aaron Glenn; together we indexed all 572 court forms on sccourts.org to make them keyword searchable. I overhauled four legal research guides for South Carolina librarians and their patrons (2018): Business, Consumer, Employment & Labor, and Workers Compensation.

- I serve on the university's Faculty Senate (2018-21) and the Faculty Senate's Ad Hoc Committee on Social and Racial Justice (2021-23), the university's Bookstore Committee (2020-23), and the law school's academic technology committee (2018-19 and 2020-21). I have also served on the law school's curriculum committee (2019-20), academic responsibility committee (2016-18), and committee for staff recognition programs (2017-18). With the committee for staff recognition programs, I was responsible for creating a Faculty FAQ that was added to the law school website (2018).

Assistant Librarian/Research Specialist, McNair Law Firm (now Burr & Forman), Columbia, SC

April 2011 - May 2016

- I provided on-demand legal research and competitive intelligence research for 110 lawyers in eight locations, as a team with one other information professional.
- I presented lawyer and paralegal training on information resources and provided on-call user support.
- I coordinated with the professionalism committee, conflicts analysts, records department, and IT department on the initial design and subsequent revisions of new business intake procedures. I delivered on average 20-30 reports per week analyzing public records information from multiple sources.
- I overhauled an InMagic/DBTextworks ILS containing more than more than 2,000 bibliographic records to prepare it to be made accessible to users via intranet. I created and applied customized controlled vocabulary subject headings for all records in the ILS. I cataloged acquisitions.
- I documented and presented the business case for acquisition or cancellation of information resources according to usage data and budgetary needs.
- I trained two part-time library workers to catalog new materials and update serials.

Adjunct Instructor, Paralegal Program, Midlands Technical College, Columbia, SC
Summer 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015

- I taught Legal Bibliography to paralegal students in an ABA-approved paralegal program.
- I provided legal research instruction using print resources, free online resources, and Westlaw (2011) or WestlawNext (2012, 2014, 2015), as well as legal writing instruction culminating in a legal memorandum.

Associate Attorney, McNair Law Firm (now Burr & Forman), Columbia, SC
September 2007 - April 2011

- I analyzed bond deals for compliance with securities and tax laws; facilitated information exchange among government officials, financial analysts, and ratings agencies; obtained preclearance from the Justice Department for referendum dates; and produced authorization, disclosure, and closing documents for $1-$50 million bonds.
- I drafted legislation and regulations to support the firm's government relations practice.

- I researched and wrote memoranda and litigation documents for other practice areas.

Summer Associate / Academic-Year Law Clerk, McNair Law Firm, Columbia, SC
 Summer 2005, Summer 2006, part-time during school years 2005-06 and 2006-07

- I researched and wrote memoranda for lawyers practicing in areas of banking, corporate, environment, employment, health care, procurement, public finance, real estate, and tax.
